Swedish Rebels Want Aid of J. W. W. (By Theobald Johnson)

To Crown of Freedom everywhere:

This is the old, old story repeated once more. The workers, without any other arms than their fists and their own strength, and the strikers, armed with the most effective weapons of labor, the strike, have taken the field. Against the criminals of the world, the workers are fighting. Against the profiteers, the workers are fighting. Against the exploiters, the workers are fighting.

This time the workmen of Sweden are fighting for their rights. They are fighting for the right to organize and for the right to strike. They are fighting for the right to live. They are fighting for the right to be free.

The Swedish workers have suffered enough. They have worked hard and long, but they have not been paid fairly. They have been exploited and oppressed. They have been driven to the brink of despair.

Now, therefore, let the world unite in the fight for the rights of the workers. Let us stand together against the bosses and the exploiters. Let us demand justice and equality for all.

SWEDISH RELIEF

The Swedish Relief Committee is doing everything in its power to aid the workers of Sweden. We urge all those who can do so to contribute to this worthy cause.

Let us not forget that we are all workers, and that we must fight for our rights together.

BRING THE STRIKE INTO THE HOME!!

Let us all stand together against the forces of oppression and exploitation. Let us not be afraid to fight for our rights.

Let us remember that the struggle is not only for the workers of Sweden, but for all workers everywhere.

SOME MORE STRONG FACTS FOR THE LUMBERJACKS

The street deep stalls have driven most of the lumbermen from the Northwest into the South, and as a result an increase in mill work which is reported by all lumber workers.
Short street meetings initiated by lumber work in the various L.W. L. halls have been the rule since the strike. Lumbermen have been on the streets in large numbers addressing the lumbermen with "so and so result."

The general strike is still in the summer barnyard for the L. W. L. is organized in the yards. Many of the men are now organizing their membership after a lapse of several years.

Southern Lumber Journals join the L. W. L. The fact that the Southern Lumber Journals joined the L. W. L. after threatening to accept the strike was a signal to the Southern Lumber men to work for a nobler cause than the suppression of the worker of the hammers and oil. The Southern lumbermen have taken new interest in the movement.

For the first time in American history there is an independent voice of the labor workers, with thus the new organization is growing stronger in the Northwest, Southern, and the Pacific Northwest, including the redwood men.

The National Industrial Union of Forest and Lumber Workers of the L. W. L. has been formed until capitalism is anachronistic and the lumber worked manages the interest in which they are employed.
