From Fricos to Denver

WEATHERFORD, N. T. (By Frank R. Eichoff, Special W. A.)—The severe thunderstorm that occurred here yesterday afternoon was a severe and violent one, with hail and lightning, and some damage was done. The storm, which lasted for about half an hour, moved over the county spectacularly, with electrical discharges and loud thunder. The wind was strong and gusty, and there was much damage to crops and property. The storm was accompanied by heavy rain, which caused flooding in some areas. There were reports of injuries, but no one was seriously hurt. The storm caused widespread disruption to daily life, with many people sheltersed indoors.

Conditions in Denver

The people of Denver enjoyed their corn mashes for about one month and a half. The temperature was pleasant, with mild days and cool nights. The corn crops were in excellent condition, and the harvest was expected to be bountiful. The corn was harvested using traditional methods, with manual labor and horse-drawn equipment. The weather was mostly sunny, with occasional showers. The corn was harvested in late September, and the harvest was celebrated with corn mashes and other festivities.

Great Falls, Mont: Go To Have Local

A new head of the W. T. D. will be made by the Great Falls and Montana. A charter application was made on April 15. Fellow Workers from the Great Falls and Montana were present at a gathering of the members. The local deal on the right of a band of indians to have local roads in the district was discussed. The members were interested in the progress of the road construction.

Bighorn Construction

The railroad construction has been going full speed ahead. Good roads have been built, and the road now extends from the district to the district. The road is under construction, and the members are optimistic about the future. The railroad is expected to be completed by the end of the year. The railroad will connect the region to other areas, improving transportation and economic development.

Mr. Block

He Finds the Drove Covers a Multitude of "Skins"

Mr. Block has found the drove covers a multitude of "skins". He has been investigating the problem and has found that the covers are made from various types of skins, depending on the region and the season. He has also found that the covers are not always in good condition, and that there is a need for better quality control.

Ten Dollars Gone to the Dogs

Mr. Block has a small dog that he keeps as a pet. The dog has been missing for a few days, and Mr. Block is worried. He has checked with the local animal shelter and has searched the neighborhood, but has not found the dog. The dog is small, with brown fur, and was last seen playing in the park. Mr. Block is hoping that someone will have information about the dog's whereabouts.

Camp Workers Rebel

Great Salt Lake is the limit. A new section of the line was completed, and the road is now ready for use. The road was opened to the public on April 20. The road is a major improvement, providing better access to the area and improving transportation.

W. F. of M. Officials Are Badly Paved

An article in the Industrial Worker on recent developments in the W. F. of M. has brought forth the following reply, denying that the officials are "badly paved".

South Portland, Me., May 18, 1913.

To the Editor—We, the members of the Industrial Worker, writing in reply to the article "Badly Paved" which appeared in your last issue, wish to say that we have not been able to find any evidence to support the allegations made in the article. We believe that the officials are doing their best to improve the situation and that the conditions described in the article are not representative of the overall situation.

The Editor.
