NEW ORLEANS TRANSPORT MEN CALL A STRIKE

MISSOULA WOODSMEN STANDING FIRM

SABOTEURS AT WORK IN CALIFORNIA

These workers are determined to take the A. F. of L. in the end to stand or fall with the company in cutting wages five dollars per month.

LUMBERJACKS RESPONDING TO STRIKE CALL

OPENING REPORTS ARE ENCOURAGING

BULLETIN NO. 1, 1913

While many of our.Game workers and men of the Forest Service are learning to work the strike, submitted in today's local, the campaign is still maintained with the usual constancy. For several days past the committes have been meeting daily and the active members as they could force out of the plant all the workers that are there to go out in strike. In many places they were unable to do this. At Los Angeles it was found impossible to obtain several of the active members of the Forest Service were on strike and the force of the men in the camp with the exception of the black doctor, who is in charge of the camp and the police, were out in strike. The same day saw the closing down of the entire lumber camp of the company, as a result of the strike.

The following cables have since reported:

Rubywood Mills, Camp 1, near Redwood Valley.

Still at Kershaw has only a small part of the company.

Conditions on Kettle Valley Line

Notices were sent to 46 members of the company who were left in Camp 5 and 61 members of the company who were left in Camp 5 that a new and better job would be provided.

In one of the lumber camps and 50 others there was not a man left in the company.

The supervent had its salaried and 100 men on the company.

The camp at Kershaw was closed down. The company had to pull out the men in the coal yard.

The conditions on the Kettle Valley Line have been very bad. The men have been left without work for the past three months, and they have been working as best they could.

The men were left in the coal yard and the company had to pull out the men in the coal yard.

The men were left in the coal yard and the company had to pull out the men in the coal yard.

The men were left in the coal yard and the company had to pull out the men in the coal yard.
TO HELL WITH THE LAWYERS

Said the Duke to Balaam,
Tell me now, I'll stand a man's frown

The idea is that the lawyers are the ones who make the laws. They are the ones who interpret the laws and decide how they should be applied. They are the ones who can make or break a case. They are the ones who can get you out of a jam or get you into one.

LUMBER WORKERS' CONVENTION TO MAKE FINAL RESOLUTIONS

The Lumber Workers' Convention, which was held in Boston, Massachusetts, on May 14, 1913, is the final resolution. The convention was called to order by the president, who read the minutes of the last meeting. The resolution was then read and discussed. The convention then voted to adopt the resolution, and the president signed the minutes.

CRAFTSMANSHIP AT ITS BEST

Craftsmanship is at its best when the work is done with attention to detail and with a love for the craft. The craftsman who takes pride in his work and works with care and precision is a craftsman who is truly skilled. The craftsman who is forced to work quickly and carelessly is likely to make mistakes and produce a product that is not as good as it could be. The craftsman who takes pride in his work is likely to produce a product that is of higher quality and that will last longer.

WALKING FROM COAST TO COAST

The idea is that the man who is walking from coast to coast is a personality. He is the one who is making the journey. He is the one who is seeing the sights and experiencing the world. He is the one who is making the decision and choosing the path.

J. B. H. Speakman, Esquire

The idea is that the man who is speaking at the convention is a personality. He is the one who is making the speech. He is the one who is expressing his ideas and his views. He is the one who is making the decision and choosing the path.

THE INDUSTRIAL WORKER, THURSDAY, JUNE 13, 1913

2
The INDUSTRIAL WORKER, THURSDAY, JUNE 13, 1912

Openings Reports Are Encouraging

Campbell Camp at Woodmoor, Over hill.

Wood & Farmer's Camp on Cannons Island.

Our correspondent, Orestes Evert, tells us that the camp is being well stocked with supplies. The camp is one of the largest in the area and is expected to be fully occupied by the end of the week.

Philadelphia Is Waking Up

by Joseph Harper

Philadelphia, June 12, 1912.

The strike of the longshoremen has been in progress for over a month, and the workers have shown strong resolve to maintain their demands. The strike began on May 18th, and since then the workers have worked hard to maintain their position.

The strike has caused a great deal of disruption in the city, with many businesses closing due to the lack of supplies. The workers have been supported by the local unions and other workers from other cities, who have come to show their solidarity.

The city government has tried to mediate the situation, but so far without success. The workers are determined to fight for their rights and will continue to do so until their demands are met.

Get Rid Of A Dirty Page

by J. B. Kemper

A man working at the Bethlehem, Al- lentown, Pa., reported the following: Sunday night at midnight a man, who was recognized as having a name that did not belong to him, entered the Pennsylvania Steel Co. He worked for about three hours, then one morning he found his clothes missing. When he came into the dining room he asked for a hat and the "Chief" immediately sent him home. When he at- tended the next day he had a different name. The "Chief" then said, "I am not a man." He was then recognized as having a name that did not belong to him.

The Rebel Rides the Holders

In most cities the French are penniless in the streets; in the winter they are sick on the streets. The following is a typical example of the conditions of the average Frenchman in the United States:

In Chicago a Frenchman was caught with a stolen wallet.

The Frenchman was released on the condition that he return to France and the wallet be returned.

The Frenchman returned to France and the wallet was returned.

BIRD OF A FEATHER

by John B. Kemper

Robert, Jane June—William Morris, the detective, has been arrested and is now required in private service at the "Bird of a Feather".

Mr. Block

He Falls To Interest Mrs. Block in Democracy

The country is getting more and more divided in its politics. Mrs. Block is one of the leading women in the city, and she is interested in the political situation.

She has been following the campaign closely, and she is convinced that the country is on the verge of a radical change.

Construction Workers Should Have Highest Wages

by W. H. Bown

All workers employed in the construction industries, such as mechanics, bricklayers, and plumbers, should be paid the highest wages. The construction industry is one of the largest and most important in the country, and the workers should be compensated fairly for their hard work.

Philadelphia Is Waking Up

by Joseph Harper

Philadelphia, June 12, 1912.

The strike of the longshoremen has been in progress for over a month, and the workers have shown strong resolve to maintain their demands. The strike began on May 18th, and since then the workers have worked hard to maintain their position.

The strike has caused a great deal of disruption in the city, with many businesses closing due to the lack of supplies. The workers have been supported by the local unions and other workers from other cities, who have come to show their solidarity.

The city government has tried to mediate the situation, but so far without success. The workers are determined to fight for their rights and will continue to do so until their demands are met.

Get Rid Of A Dirty Page

by J. B. Kemper

A man working at the Bethlehem, Al- lentown, Pa., reported the following: Sunday night at midnight a man, who was recognized as having a name that did not belong to him, entered the Pennsylvania Steel Co. He worked for about three hours, then one morning he found his clothes missing. When he came into the dining room he asked for a hat and the "Chief" immediately sent him home. When he at- tended the next day he had a different name. The "Chief" then said, "I am not a man." He was then recognized as having a name that did not belong to him.

The Rebel Rides the Holders

In most cities the French are penniless in the streets; in the winter they are sick on the streets. The following is a typical example of the conditions of the average Frenchman in the United States:

In Chicago a Frenchman was caught with a stolen wallet.

The Frenchman was released on the condition that he return to France and the wallet be returned.

The Frenchman returned to France and the wallet was returned.

BIRD OF A FEATHER

by John B. Kemper

Robert, Jane June—William Morris, the detective, has been arrested and is now required in private service at the "Bird of a Feather".