MISSOURI MEN ARE FREED

(Special to the Industrial Worker) "Washington, Sept. 27.—The Negro workers who were held in military camps at Fort Devens, Telford, and Camp McCook, after having served beyond the limit of their enlistments, were released last night from the camps.

The case was disclosed because there was evidence to substantiate the complaint. At the preliminary hearing the witness for the prosecution, John Ross, a poor colored cook who works at the fort, said that the cooks at the fort, where the Negroes were held, had formed a union called the "Washington" and agreed to go out on strike unless the Negroes were released. The Negroes were eating at the same table as the white men, but they were not allowed to eat the same food as the white men. The Negroes were allowed to eat only the scraps of food that the white men had left over.

The case was brought to the attention of the authorities, who requested the release of the Negroes. The Negroes were released last night, and the strike was settled.

A. L. MULLEN.
INDUSTRIAL WORKER, THURSDAY, JULY 17, 1925

TRANSLATED NEWS

INTERNATIONAL BULLETIN OF THE C.I.O.

ITALY

The Confederation of Amalgamated (Italian) Metal Workers' Unions, which represents the skilled and the semiskilled workers engaged in metal trades at Alice, Milan, and the surrounding areas, has been dissolved as a result of the cancellation of the government's work permit. The government had required the union to accept all workers overcome by the strike. The union, however, rejected the government's demand and refused to accept the permit. The union demanded that the strike be called off until the government recognized the right of workers to strike. The strike was called off on condition that the union accept the government's work permit.

PORTUGAL

Amorim, the leader of the Lamia press, has called on the workers to resume their work at Alice, Milan, and the surrounding areas. The union is demanding the recall of all workers dismissed during the strike. The union also demands the recall of all workers who have been dismissed for participating in the strike. The union is also demanding the recall of all workers who have been dismissed for participating in the strike. The union is also demanding the recall of all workers who have been dismissed for participating in the strike. The union is also demanding the recall of all workers who have been dismissed for participating in the strike. The union is also demanding the recall of all workers who have been dismissed for participating in the strike. The union is also demanding the recall of all workers who have been dismissed for participating in the strike. The union is also demanding the recall of all workers who have been dismissed for participating in the strike. The union is also demanding the recall of all workers who have been dismissed for participating in the strike. The union is also demanding the recall of all workers who have been dismissed for participating in the strike. The union is also demanding the recall of all workers who have been dismissed for participating in the strike. The union is also demanding the recall of all workers who have been dismissed for participating in the strike. The union is also demanding the recall of all workers who have been dismissed for participating in the strike. The union is also demanding the recall of all workers who have been dismissed for participating in the strike. The union is also demanding the recall of all workers who have been dismissed for participating in the strike.
Mr. Block

He Buys The Alarm Clock

``You ALARM CLOCH! DO YOU THINK I INHERITED TWO THOUSAND DOLLARS?''

Mr. Block was a man who had inherited two thousand dollars. He was determined to make the best use of his fortune, but he was not sure how to invest it wisely. He decided to consult a competent financial advisor who could help him make the right decisions.

``I am thinking of investing in the stock market. What do you think about it?''

The advisor looked at Mr. Block and smiled. ``I think the stock market is a good investment. It has great potential for growth and profits. However, it is also risky, and you should be prepared to lose some money.''

``That's what I'm afraid of. I don't want to lose my money. What other investments do you recommend?''

The advisor thought for a moment. ``Sure. You could invest in real estate, bonds, or even gold. These are all safe investments, but they also have different levels of risk and return. It's important to diversify your portfolio to minimize your risk.''

``That's what I need. I don't want to lose my money, but I also don't want to miss out on potential growth. What should I do?''

The advisor nodded. ``I would recommend that you invest in a variety of options, such as stocks, bonds, and real estate, to balance your portfolio. This way, you can protect your capital while still earning a good return on your investment.''

``That sounds like a good plan. I'll consider it. Thank you for your advice. I really appreciate it.''

The advisor smiled. ``You're welcome. Remember, investing is a long-term game. Be patient, and you'll see the results.''

``I will. Thank you again. I feel much better now.''

The advisor shook Mr. Block's hand and wished him good luck. Mr. Block left feeling confident and excited about his new investment strategy.