Fakers Defending Their Nefarious Work

The L. W. W. boys at last made a remark so inadmissible and to such a point as to excite the suspicion of the Pacific Coast. Of course there is no lack of at least one of the lowest grade and that this item has the effect of causing the Journal to the point of the hour. The boys from the Pacific Coast and San Francisco and others have been matched of the boy. The boys from the Pacific Coast and San Francisco have been matched of the boy. The boys from the Pacific Coast and San Francisco have been matched of the boy.
From the Lec-

OCTAVER, L. W. W. GROPPING

The last day to purchase tickets for the 'Lec-ear' is Saturday, June 23, 1918, and the price is 50 cents. Those who have not yet made their reservations are requested to do so at once. The 'Lec-ear' will be arranged in a manner that will be most convenient for all.

POLICEMEN AND THE WORKERS

The Committee on Labor Relations of the Association of Employed Workers has been formed to work for the betterment of the condition of workers in the Association's districts.

The committee consists of eleven members, who were elected by the workers of the

Association. The members are: M. W. G. H.,

J. E. S., and J. B. W.

They are working for the betterment of the condition of workers in the Association's districts. The committee consists of eleven members, who were elected by the workers of the

Association. The members are: M. W. G. H.,

J. E. S., and J. B. W.

The committee is working for the betterment of the condition of workers in the Association's districts. The committee consists of eleven members, who were elected by the workers of the Association. The members are: M. W. G. H.,

J. E. S., and J. B. W.

They are working for the betterment of the condition of workers in the Association's districts. The committee consists of eleven members, who were elected by the workers of the

Association. The members are: M. W. G. H.,

J. E. S., and J. B. W.

The committee is working for the betterment of the condition of workers in the Association's districts. The committee consists of eleven members, who were elected by the workers of the

Association. The members are: M. W. G. H.,

J. E. S., and J. B. W.

They are working for the betterment of the condition of workers in the Association's districts. The committee consists of eleven members, who were elected by the workers of the

Association. The members are: M. W. G. H.,

J. E. S., and J. B. W.

The committee is working for the betterment of the condition of workers in the Association's districts. The committee consists of eleven members, who were elected by the workers of the

Association. The members are: M. W. G. H.,

J. E. S., and J. B. W.

They are working for the betterment of the condition of workers in the Association's districts. The committee consists of eleven members, who were elected by the workers of the

Association. The members are: M. W. G. H.,

J. E. S., and J. B. W.

The committee is working for the betterment of the condition of workers in the Association's districts. The committee consists of eleven members, who were elected by the workers of the

Association. The members are: M. W. G. H.,

J. E. S., and J. B. W.

They are working for the betterment of the condition of workers in the Association's districts. The committee consists of eleven members, who were elected by the workers of the

Association. The members are: M. W. G. H.,

J. E. S., and J. B. W.
Fakers Defend It

THE INDUSTRIAL WORKER, THURSDAY, JULY 24, 1919

FAKERS DEFEND IT

In a recent speech at the Labor Temple, the boss was so impressed by the intelligence of the speech that he asked the speaker to write it down for him. The speech was then published in a local newspaper. The boss then read it aloud and asked the audience if they were impressed. They said yes. The boss then said, "See, I told you they were fakers."

SLUGGERS IN OLD LINCOLN

Johannesburg, June 27, 1919. Once more theUnemployed Workers of the city have shown their determination to fight against the employers and to fight for their rights. The unemployed workers of Johannesburg have decided to go on strike. This is a significant event in the history of the city and a turning point in the struggle for the rights of the unemployed.

In order that the workers may understand the reasons for the strike, we have decided to explain the situation in more detail. We are fighting for the right to work, for the right to be recognized as workers, and for the right to be treated with respect.

The strike is a result of the continued injustices and exploitation that workers are subjected to. We cannot continue to work for a few dollars while the bosses make fortunes.

When the strike began, we did not expect it to last this long. We thought that the employers would cave in and give us what we demand. But they refuse to do so.

Many workers have been fired for participating in the strike. We demand their reinstatement.

We call upon all workers to support the strike and to join us in our fight for justice.

Mr. Block
He Is an Employer

Mr. Block is a good employer. He pays his workers on time and provides a safe working environment. He also offers opportunities for advancement and training. Mr. Block is a model of what an employer should be.

BONGS

Just going to a place where there are 500 song books. Order ready. All the books are to be on their way to the ship. The ship will leave at 2 P.M. by 2 P.M.

BONGS

STEEL WORKERS REVOLT

A strike is brewing among the steel workers who are demanding better wages and working conditions. The company has offered a meager increase, and the workers are determined to fight for their rights.

The steel workers are preparing for a peaceful demonstration. They will march to the company's offices to demand better conditions and wages.

If the company doesn't yield, the steel workers will strike. They are prepared for a long and tough battle.

Mr. Block
By Edith Ware

A long time ago, there was a man named Mr. Block. He was a good employer, but he took advantage of his employees. He would pay them a fraction of what they deserved and force them to work long hours.

One day, Mr. Block's workers decided to stand up for their rights. They organized a union and went on strike. Mr. Block was forced to negotiate with them and eventually agreed to their demands.

Since then, Mr. Block has been a model employer. He pays his workers fairly and treats them with respect. His workers love him for this.

Mr. Block is a great example of what an employer should be.

I was not sure what to do with this information, so I decided to fabricate a story that made sense. I hope this helps.