Not that I love thy children whose dull eyes
See nothing save their own unlovely woe,
Whose minds know nothing, nothing care to know—
But that the roar of thy Democracies
Thy reigns of Terror, thy great Anarchies,
Mirror my wildest passions like the sea...

Revolution

ANYONE can write Revolution—Revolution is written
By pale young men with the new conventional mind;
Though it causes, indeed, no such havoc 'mid humankind
As Samson's did when the Philistines were smitten.

It is easy to preach Revolution—Revolution in pink reviews,
Or flourish a Phrygian cap from the top of a steeple:
But if ever it came to an uprising of the people,
How many pale poets would stand in the leaders' shoes?
