Bankers Back Bosses in Struggle Against Labor

Resolutions on Office Workers

Resolution
WHEREAS, it is the established practice of Trade Union organizations to petition other unions, and
WHEREAS, the Union Labor Committee of the State Federation of Bankers, Brokers, Typists and Assistants, No. 16561, that no union people have been employed by trade union organizations whose duty it should be to act on an example to all other employers of labor, and
WHEREAS, no union people have been placed in employment by these organizations while unemployed members of said organizations were still without employment, therefore it RESOLVED, that all trade union offices and all other places where members of our organization are customarily employed be required and bound to cease all business with the State of Bankers, Brokers, Typists and Assistants Union, No. 16561, and ask that all trade union people employed by said union be treated with more respect.

Local 544 Meeting Is Well Attended

The specially called membership meeting held last night and attended by over 200 members was attended by one of the largest crowds that have assembled in a strict union meeting for some time. The various strikes now being conducted by 544 were reported to the membership and the local will do all it can to support the striking workers in their struggle for a just settlement.

The resolution adopted by the membership was that a copy of this resolution be printed in all papers and signed by General Owners. Submitted by a number of delegations, including those from the various districts, the resolution was adopted by a show of hands and signed by the General Owners.

has been at stake all this week. Employees in wholesale grocery warehouses, who up until last week were not members of Local 344, are now flocking to the union. The huge numbers involved in the strike are striking because they say "the main reason is the animosity and the people are being forced to do something that will not affect the standard of living for the workers." The wholesale grocery industry is completely paralyzed by the strike. Financiers, however, are plentiful. Firms that have signed with the Union are reported to be doing gigantic business as they continue to supply the many grocery retailers.

INDEX TO THE END ZONE

NO NEWS

The newspaper scene in Minnesota this week is without much news of consequence. The only item which is of note is the situation of the Minneapolis Labor Temple, and the news from that point. It is still rumoured that some of the large newspapers in the city may try to organize a new newspaper. In spite of this, the labor movement has not been without its share of interest. The newspaper scene in Minneapolis is still fairly lively and there is no lack of material to write about.

BIG TEN

The most interesting game so far this season is the match between the University of Minnesota and the University of Michigan. The game was played in Minneapolis and the crowd was huge. The University of Minnesota won by a score of 14-7. The game was a good one and the crowd was enthusiastic.

HARD WORK

It's a big game for the winner and a great game for the loser. The University of Minnesota is a strong team and the University of Michigan is a tough team. The game was a hard-fought one and both teams played well.

LUCIES

We had a big game last week in the pickers in the best schools and the pickers in the worst schools. The pickers in the best schools had a much better game than the pickers in the worst schools. The pickers in the best schools were much better in all respects.

THIS WEEK

We had a good game last week in the pickers in the best schools and the pickers in the worst schools. The pickers in the best schools had a much better game than the pickers in the worst schools. The pickers in the best schools were much better in all respects.

OUR CHOICE

We are happy to recommend our pickers and we strongly believe the pickers in the best schools are the ones to choose.

WYIS-

We regret that no game has been played yet. We hope that a game will be played soon.

Yellow Notes

The members of this Unit are very much concerned with the wages of their workers. The members of this Unit feel that the wages of their workers are too low and that the Unit should take action to raise the wages of their workers.

Elevator Workers, Continue Strike

Monday, September 28, members of the Elevator Workers Union, Local No. 1662, are on strike throughout the city. The Union and elevator employers have not yet reached an agreement and the strike continues.

On WPA Projects

The U.S. Employment Service has made available a number of applications for jobs renewed during July, 1937, in Minneapolis. For all the states in the country, 200,000 people have been selected through this agency alone. For the state of Minnesota, there were some 1,000 employable on direct relief projects.

Rosie Parke, WPA strikers returned to work last week. They had ample grievances. Rural living costs are as high as in urban, but WPA rural wages are more lavish. We don’t know what their strike lasted but it looked similar to the policy called, well-appointed Airport strike in Minneapolis. F.W. S. again says that the first need is for well-grounded economic organization, carefully laid plans and direct trade union backing before strikes are undertaken. Leaves and grievances alone can win a strike. Dependable experienced leadership is essential.

Unqualified support for and explanation of the F.W.S. program throughout the state was voted by the convention of the State Labor and the Tranterst Joint Council of the Minneapolis, F.W. S. The convention has decided that the pay checks are near approximately 5% higher for six days work over what they used to be.

Sit back and enjoy yourself till game time. There are 30,000 officers and 50,000 members in the union. Good luck. Work.

Pacific Tel. and Tel. Co. candidates were endorsed by them. They include: John T. Walsh, the chairman of the executive committee of the State Council of Labor, and M. J. O'Brien, Assistant District WPA Administrator. Both men have been active in the union movement for many years.

The convention was called to order by President William J. O’Connor of the St. Paul and Great Northern unions. He then turned the convention over to the house. In the closing ceremonies of the convention, the new executive committee was elected and new officers and committee members were appointed. The convention then adjourned.

SNAPS—The next trip visit to Minneapolis, who has evidently taken a lively interest in his area of the rival between this city and her area. I was struck by the suddenness that fifty nap: “If we always knew what the next day is going to bring, wouldn’t we be the cities, but I didn’t realize that the government had to put Fort Snelling aside and be glad to keep them from fighting.”

FASHIONS—There will be quite a change in the sex fashion in the fall. In fact it will be quite noticeable.

CLASSIC—Is there a chance that the Western States and California will be the next target of the National Park Service?

GAMES—Is it possible that Knuck Knock knock on and on till they grow weary. But once in a while a genuine round of a game, and produce a game of classic. Such is Kraft Meat Ball’s Bob Bara, who with a pun and poem starts the game.

Incredible—I got up at midnight only to see that the moon was a yellow candle light.”

Inventory quite the other way.

I have to go to bed by day.

NEWSMEN—Have done almost as much to bring us into the present affairs of civilization as have missionaries and may be the most important “heart interest” newsman, by throwing the light of publicity on every phase of the situation that has stopped many cases of cruelty such as the case of the Golden Valley Supery.

POLITICS—For the want of politics comes the want of a guide in the minds of the citizen of an English writer. He has been in this country a short time, but it is clear as to the position of the political campaign. He was asked what he thought of American politics. He answered: “They are a lot of rot.” The most false believes the dark house, the most false believes the biggest job.

CASUAL—In drama, so much, so much was supposed to be lost in the dust of the recent Minnesota-Washington game, but in the light of the information that must have been one of the injured.

SEND OFF—

544 has stood always for bigger and better. The spirit of 544 has made better living conditions for everyone. The 544 fleet has united this force has forged steadily ahead.

A group of 544’s problems can be seen in these discoveries. From its humble beginning the 544 fleet has grown and with the power of DICK ATKINSON has become a fine co-ordinated, all United.

Keeping Step With 544

Although the convention was a splendid affair, there was no end of worry about the fact that we haven’t missed for a week that we’ve had for a week or a day.

How did you know that St. Paul division? A $2,500 gift to fellow union officials solicited in my name.

The real section will meet on the first Monday in October.

The Monday membership meeting was a bust.

A delegation from the Petroleum Workers Union were union officials yesterday.

Robert Peterson, contractor who rearranged the union hall, was a caller at the union office Sunday afternoon.

Chesapeake lodge 4002 and a September union but- ton were found in the hall after the Monday meeting. Call at office.

Cement block plants have been Idle and we’re going to help. We can furnish it.

Many organized grocery workers have joined the union in the last few days.

Smith, Murphy, Dobbs and others were at the govt. Tuesday.

The State Convention endorsed the amendment.

A bounty of a card game has been running for the past week. It’s grocery strikers playing for butter.

The Independents put forward some eloquent speakers Monday night. The gist of that section.

Bill Brown is on the sick list.

Lot’s lost.

Semitic says that these conven- tions will go to town.

It’s nice in January.

The Hayseed strikers have their firm closed tonight. Would we be wrong in saying that we have it all over them like a teat?

Madden Brothers firm is no longer holding about from Duluth. Reason? The drivers want their union recognized.

The summarization of the grocery strikers in really a sick affair. Come up and see these unfortunate men don’t try to move in at meal time.

Sumly Brown suffered a burned hand at the funeral of his new suit at the convention. An over-loving delegate tried to embrace him with $5,500 in cash in his hand. No necessity.

A strike loans in the Office. Well, well, well, or something.

Laundry drivers No. 151 are Going to Town.

The Elevator strikers turned out in force at the settlement meeting. Monday. It was at 10.9 St. Sth.

All members of the Independent Truck Owners Section are urged to immediately turn in their union cards. They are paying their drivers the scale rate. This is the greatest importance and is in accord with the spirit taken at a previous meeting.

All Independents are urged to attend the general membership meeting expected to be held this Monday on the 25th of this month and the following meeting on the 3rd of the month. The object to arise that are the concern of the truck owners and we should all be there to discuss them.

It seems odd that many of the stewards on the Belt Line are to be found on the waterfront. Should the Job Committee in-

All of the boys on WPA are still in bed, and it is supposed that tomorrow day that was promised by the street, WPA is not to be shown. It apparently has not been put into effect as yet.

The entire crew from the 5th and 6th streets were recently transferred to the 8th street. They made the shift for the “jacking of cabs” for these two who are so mark- er.
