BUZZA WORKERS
FIRM RANKS WIN
THEIR DEMANDS

Settlement Brings Wage Raise For All Workers and Sets New Minimum

Signed Agreement Is Reached After a Two-Day Struggle by Picketers

Driving their way through all opposition, the workers of Buzza, Inc., held a solid strike, workers at the Buzza factory Tuesday. After two days of picketing, when they returned to the plant under a signed union agreement guaranteeing achievement of 10 per cent wage increase, the workers did not return to work.

The settlement of the strike at the Buzza plant is a significant victory for the Workers United Union, and the success of the workers was in itself a job that more than offset the obstacles that were overcome to bring it about.

Later in the evening a settlement of the strike at the Buzza plant was announced. The workers had reached 100 per cent efficiency. After the admission of several new members, the union had reached 100 per cent efficiency.

FEDERAL SECTION WINS A VICTORY FOR UNEMPLOYED

President Wilson's proposal was necessary to feed those, and save a large part of the nation's food. The plan of the government was carried through by the War Industries Board, which had the power to regulate the production of foodstuffs.

The War Industries Board was established by Congress in June 1917, to coordinate the production of military equipment and supplies. The Board was charged with the responsibility of ensuring that the United States could produce the necessary materials for the war effort.

In April 1917, the War Industries Board took over the production of sugar, coffee, and tobacco. In June 1917, the Board began to regulate the production of textiles, rubber, and steel. In August 1917, the Board began to regulate the production of petroleum.

By the end of the war in November 1918, the War Industries Board had supervised the production of more than 600 different products, ranging from airplanes to blankets.

JANITORS UNION ORGANIZED FOR ACTION ON JOB

With the Laundry Workers Union

Members of Local 181 and their friends are putting out a new strike against the Laundry Workers Union, which will be held Friday, April 8, at 7:30 a.m. The new members of Local 181 are very active and they plan to conduct a peaceful and orderly strike. A special program of歌舞, instrumental music, and speeches will be served to the members. A special address will be made by the new members of Local 181.

The decider of the strike will be the employee who is willing to work for the higher wages. The strike will be a peaceful one, and all employees are advised to be present at the Laundry Workers Union meeting on Friday at 7:30 a.m. All members of the Laundry Workers Union are invited to attend.

JANITOR'S UNION TAKES STAND ON WAGES

Starvation Wages Are Paid to Janitors and Operators in Denver

Over 100 janitors, elevators-operators and clerical workers in the Denver Steam Laundry have organized the Janitors' Union and have expressed their dissatisfaction with the wages paid to them in the laundry industry.

The Janitors' Union states that they are being paid starvation wages, which is not fair to the workers who are doing the same amount of work as other workers.

The strike is to be held from 7:30 a.m. to 6 p.m. on Friday, April 8. All members of the Janitors' Union are encouraged to participate.

Action Versus Words
No better demonstration of the real difference between the two words "chasing one's tail" and "chasing one's nose" could be found than in what took place Thursday morning when a picture of the work that the State legislature has been doing. The State legislature, which is charged with the responsibility of making laws for the State, is in session. The public at large, however, has little or no idea of what is going on in the State capital. The legislators are working, but the public knows little about what they are doing. The legislators are making laws, but the public knows little about what they are doing. The legislators are making laws, but the public knows little about what they are doing.

One does not have to seek far to find the reason for the apparent lack of interest among the public in what is going on in the State legislature. This year's legislative program was designed primarily to meet the needs of the people of the State and to solve some of the problems that are facing the State. The People's Lobby was formed to represent the needs of the people in the State legislature. The People's Lobby has been very active in recent years and has made many achievements. One of the accomplishments of the People's Lobby was the passage of the so-called "People's Bill," which was designed to help the people of the State by providing for the establishment of a State Board of Public Welfare.

meeting Notice
Wednesday, April 4th, there will be a regular meeting of the People's Fund, formerly the Committee for the Reform of Local 29, at 7:30 p.m. in St. Paul.

One of the accomplishments of the People's Lobby was the passage of the so-called "People's Bill," which was designed to help the people of the State by providing for the establishment of a State Board of Public Welfare.
