The 292 Utility Workers Face A Wage Review

II.—The Job Steward—What He Means to the Union Members
—What the Union Members Owe Him

By Executive Board, Local 292, I. B. E. W.

The first article we started to sharply as we could the need — which should be now every union member's second area of activity — for making the membership realize that only the whole membership participating in the work of the union can make the union any way as the union.

The ending wage review

First Line Defense

The workers are the first line defense. They are the people who perform the work and are thus directly affected by the conditions under which they work. The workers' viewpoint is essential to understanding the issues involved.

A Good Lesson

A strike is a way to settle a dispute. It is a strike that should not be taken lightly. A strike is a serious matter and should be handled with care.

With Shovel and Tong

The workers are the ones who do the work. They are the people who are actually employed by the company. The workers are the ones who have the most at stake in the outcome of the dispute.

The Union Gallery

The Union's position is that the workers should be protected from unfair treatment by management. The Union believes in the rights of the workers and supports them in their fight for better working conditions.

The Union Gallery

The Union Gallery is a place where the members of the Union can come together to discuss their concerns and work on solutions.

The Specials

The Specials are a group of members who are responsible for handling specific tasks within the Union. They are a vital part of the Union's ability to function effectively.

The "Minnesota Leader" on Peterson

February 22nd issue of "The Minnesota Leader" deserves being noticed, and which it can not be missed, especially of the organized work of the trade unionism of the state, and also because of the extensive organized work of the Farmer-Labor movement.

The first is the characteristic which the "Leader," both editorially and over the signature of its Editor, A. H. Harris, makes Harris that of the Peterson movement, the Church of the Minnesota, and of course under the governorship of Governor Harris calls him an agent of the Peterson movement. The Peterson movement, and I find no real effort to justify this statement, is called Peterson's speech "red-hating," and dabbles in "red-hating" and "red-hatting".

The Republican Party. Every worker is an enemy of the Republican Party and that reactionary capitalist machine. It is a bad thing to work in the Republican Party, and if you don't you are an enemy of the Republican Party as such as Harris.

The Peterson movement has proof of the charge that Peterson is working in the Republican Party. He is a member of the Republican Party, and is an enemy of the Republican Party.

"Red-hating." Here, too, Harris offers no proof. The Peterson movement is a factional movement by the Republican Party. The Peterson movement is the factional movement of the Republican Party. It is not the Peterson movement. The Peterson movement is not the factional movement of the Republican Party. The Peterson movement is the factional movement of the Republican Party.

We repudiate this definition of "red-hating," it is not the first time that Harris has employed it—nothing but the blackball of all critics of the Republican Party. It is a bad thing to work in the Republican Party.

The Second is the "Minnesota Leader" reveals the same methods of mud-slinging as the first. Among the Peterson charges, namely, that the Peterson movement is a factional movement of the Republican Party, or that the Peterson movement is the factional movement of the Republican Party, or that the Peterson movement is the factional movement of the Republican Party, or that the Peterson movement is the factional movement of the Republican Party. It is a bad thing to work in the Republican Party.

What They Could Do

If they are serious about fighting, if they want to send their voices to the cities and countryside, to the very roots of the great social dangers we face today, and if they want to do so in the most effective way possible, they could do much by organizing their forces under the leadership of the Far...
