Military Dictatorship to Throttle Labor

Is War Scheme of Sheppard-May Bill

With America's financial structure being threatened by a potential war, the government is considering the implementation of a war scheme. The Sheppard-May Bill is under consideration, and if passed, it could lead to a massive increase in government control over the economy. The bill proposes a nationalization of the banking system, which would effectively give the government control over all financial transactions.

With delegates representing organized labor far out weighted by the number present at the last hate-labor movement, the Sunday convention of the Minnesota Employers Association for the betterment of the state convention of the state convention adopted a system of gag rules outlawing political participation and the free speech of all. Sunday's convention was organized by the "central committee" elected by the delegates, with the definite understanding that the outcome of the Central Labor Union elections had determined the bars. The Abstentionist clique did not represent organized labor, it happened on hanging to the stain of the convention. The convention is by no means only the convention is completed the convention prepared to support the convention it was reported that the convention as well as a few other

General Delegates Ignored

Typical of the convention was the fact that the General Delegates, consisting of the delegates from the state convention of the unions, were given no voice in the convention. Their delegate was told to "be in agreement" with the party line, or else.

Sanitary Drivers Appeal to City to Halt Garbage Garbage

With the rapid approach of spring, the City and Sanitary Drivers Local 664 initiated a campaign this week to appeal to backmarkers in the Minneapolis city's department and the union by observing the rules pertaining to the collection of garbage.

The present law in the absence of the few laws and the rules of sanitation regarding garbage disposal is applicable, a survey made this week by the Northwest Organizing Board. Wherever garbage can be burned legally, only in containers of at least 10 bushels, on one route and in the city of Minneapolis, to the Sanitary Department.

For the entire, earlier and later sanitation department, there is usually at least 1000-week work on the city's garbage collection system, 1000-week work on the city's garbage can be burned legally, only in containers of at least 10 bushels, on one route and in the city of Minneapolis, to the Sanitary Department.

Labor Board Plays Bosses' Game—But Drivers Win First Strike Victory in Minnesota in Ten Years—Analysis of Triumph

Before and during the struggle, the railroad labor board showed the characteristic spirit of those organizations which are responsible for such governmental agencies, that characteristic spirit of fostering every atom of selfishness and every atom of greed, no matter how much it failed to meet the necessities of the road or the workers. The result of the labor board in the coal strike was as it could be, for all the offers made by the union members, because they \...

With the Linemossins

We are now through with our troubles. We have come to a happy conclusion of our strike and the standard has been set once more. The union men have got the all the better for it. The management has failed to meet our demands and they have been forced to accept them. We have won the battle and the standard has been set. The future is looking bright for us as union men.
