Gamble Strike Settled

The strike of General Motors and Detroit Edison Co. against the Gamble Firestone Co., called February 20, was settled last week following negotiations between the union and the company. The big labor dispute was the last important strike to be settled.

The agreement, signed by the union and the company, provides for a 25-cent increase in wages for all workers involved in the strike, as well as other concessions.

On the Overnight Team Line

Employees of more than 1,500 United Steelworkers of America locals have begun to strike against the employers they believe are engaging in anti-union activities.

A jurisdictional dispute between the Tonawanda Mountains and the New York Labor Department has led to the strike. The employers have refused to recognize the union as the bargaining agent for the workers.

Southwest Drivers Discuss Demands

Motorcycle drivers from several states held a meeting last week to discuss their demands. They are seeking an end to the strike against the Southwest Recreation Co., which has frozen wages and benefits.

The drivers, who are mostly from New York, Pennsylvania, and Ohio, met to discuss their concerns and strategies for resolving the strike.

Lee Darrow's Passing Recalls Great Struggles of Former Years

Darrow’s passing is a reminder of the times when labor unions fought against the power of the rich. It is a call to remember the struggles of our ancestors and to continue the fight for justice.

The labor movement needs us to carry on the work of our predecessors. We must continue to fight against the power of the rich and to stand up for the rights of all workers.

Make Minneapolis a Union Town

Talking to the people one on one and on the job is important. It helps us to understand their needs and to build their solidarity. It is a way to build a strong movement for change.

The time is now to organize and to build a strong movement for justice. Let’s stand together and fight for a better future.

The company decided to submit the second round of offers to the union on the following day. The union, however, rejected the offer and announced that it would proceed with its own offer. The company then decided to submit a third round of offers, and the union again rejected the offer. The company finally decided to submit a fourth round of offers, and the union again rejected the offer. The company then decided to submit a fifth round of offers, and the union finally accepted the offer.

Bill Brown Says--

I'd like to let a bottle of steam get up in this town so that it makes the ticket in the state election.

I. B. E. W. President Sends Emissary for Short Visit

The Northwestern Power Company has requested the Illinois State Board of Elections to declare the election results invalid due to alleged fraud. The union, however, has rejected the request and announced that it will proceed with its own investigation. The company then decided to submit a complaint to the Illinois State Board of Elections, and the union again rejected the complaint. The company then decided to submit a second complaint to the Illinois State Board of Elections, and the union again rejected the complaint. The company then decided to submit a third complaint to the Illinois State Board of Elections, and the union finally accepted the complaint.
