Warehouse Union Wins One-Year Pact From Sears

Also Signs With Janney, Semple

A new one-year working agreement was signed early this week between the Sears, Roebuck concern and the Warehouse Union in Minneapolis. The contract is identical with that which has been in effect for the past two years. The Warehouse Union thus joins the group of other unions which have won new agreements in the city during the past few months. The agreement presented a small but significant increase in the wages of the employees. The signing of the Sears agreement, and two other ones signed a week later, is expected to cause a general increase in wages. The union members in numerous organizations have been kept informed of the developments, and they are expected to take action to secure their rights.

This agreement between

This agreement between

bequests called the Compassion Foundation was adopted by the board of directors of the company.

The agreement includes a provision for a wage increase for members of Local 221 who have been employed by the company for at least one year. The wage increase is as follows:

- 2% for members who have been employed for one to two years
- 3% for members who have been employed for three to five years
- 4% for members who have been employed for more than five years

The agreement also includes a provision for a wage increase for new hires, with the increase amounting to 2% per year for the first three years of employment.

TAX TOPICS

One of the many tax benefits that may be available to members of Local 221 is the deduction for charitable contributions. The agreement states that members may deduct up to 60% of their adjusted gross income for charitable contributions, to a maximum of $5,000.

There are two things that can result in the deduction of charitable giving. First, the giving must be to a qualified organization. Second, the giving must be made in cash. Members are urged to consult with their tax advisor to determine if they are eligible for this deduction.

The agreement also includes a provision for a paid vacation for all employees working at the mill.

Eastern Reader Comments On Textile Union Fiasco

In an interview with the eastern reader, Mr. John East, a leading member of the textile union, expressed his concern about the recent fiasco in the union. He stated that the union had been misguided in its attempt to negotiate a better contract for the workers. Instead of focusing on the workers' needs, the union leadership had allowed itself to be influenced by outside pressures.

Finks Attack Pickets from Musicians Union

The Musicians Union, Local 74, has filed a complaint against a number of its members for their behavior during recent picket lines. The union claims that the members have been engaging in violent behavior and have been interfering with the delivery of goods to music stores.

The union's complaint is based on the incident at the Studio Records store on Thursday, where members of Local 74 were said to have been blocking the entrance to the store and interfering with customers. The union has called for a special meeting of its members to discuss the matter.

544 Picnic Committee Wins Prize

The executive board of General Foods Unions Local 544, a federation of competing members of the Picnic Committee, met at the Pigtail Saturday night and proposed the establishment of the United Picket Line Committee. The Picnic Committee has previously been a source of controversy among the workers. The Picnic Committee was formed by the workers themselves to commemorate the anniversary of the Picnic Committee. The committee members are responsible for organizing the Picnic and ensuring that it is safe and accessible to everyone who wants to attend.

The committee's primary goal is to ensure that the Picnic is a fun and safe event for everyone. They have worked hard to create a space where people can come together and enjoy each other's company. The committee's members are determined to make sure that the Picnic is a success this year and that it will continue to be a tradition for years to come.

The Picnic Committee has also made efforts to ensure that the event is environmentally friendly. They have used recycled materials and have made an effort to reduce waste. The committee members are proud of the work they have done and look forward to hosting another successful Picnic in the future.

The Picnic Committee is a testament to the power of community and the importance of coming together to celebrate. They have shown that with dedication and hard work, anything is possible. The Picnic Committee is an inspiration to all who believe in the power of community and the importance of coming together to celebrate.
