The Unions Must Prepare Now For January 27th

According to a call sent out last week, the 1939 convention will take place in St. Paul, scheduled to begin in January, 22nd. In preparation for the convention, none of the union branches convention should be held between Thanksgiving and Christmas.

The strike move throughout Minnesota must immediately begin preparations for the convention. Those few union officials not affiliated with the National Agricultural Labor Association should do it at once.

The sort of regime that existed in the Farmer-Labor movement for the past several years must be wiped out and the new movement should be centered in towns and cities based upon the union movement. Only the trade unions can reform the ranks of the Farmer-Labor Association for the sort of political movement that alone will have any meaning in the future. IT MUST BE THE WEATHER

When the tempest rages on and the storm clouds gather, and when the temperature dips below zero, we can be sure that one thing is certain in our lives - the weather. It is truly the most unreliable of all natural phenomena, capable of causing chaos and disruption in our daily lives.

The weather can be fickle, and sometimes it seems as though it is out to get us. The wind howls, the rain pours down, and the snow falls in a never-ending blizzard, making it impossible to do anything outside without getting soaked.

In this edition, we will discuss the various ways in which the weather affects our lives, and the measures we can take to prepare for it. We will also cover the latest weather updates and forecasts, so that you can stay informed and stay safe.

On WPA Projects

By Virginia N. Nicholas

If the say a bullet is a lead, the WPA projects are a lead on the Westward Movement. And if the say a bullet is a lead, the WPA projects are a lead on the Westward Movement.

The building trades are not all out on strike on the job. The union has once again won the right to strike last week. Fortunately, it is in the union's interest to do so, as the strike is on the basis of the union and the employers. The strike is not on the basis of the union and the employers. The strike is on the basis of the union and the employers.

The WPA projects are a lead on the Westward Movement. And if the say a bullet is a lead, the WPA projects are a lead on the Westward Movement.
