1,500 Stage Mass Protest vs. WPA Lay-Offs

On the National Picket Line

Omaha Unions Defy Anti-Picketing Law

Throw Picket Line Around State Capitol—Protest Federal Law to State Legislation—Union President Freed—Distribute 50,000 Strike Bulletins — Boss Vandals Seek to Provoke Fight

The drivers of Nebraska and Sioux City, Iowa, marked the 18th week of their great fight for the area's 200,000 truck drivers and farmers of this area. The one-company union, which organized and maintains the striking drivers, has expanded into the state capital with the pickets. The drivers met in Burlington, Iowa, and indicated that the strike would continue.

Big Program Launched by FLC Council

Before the noon-day meeting of the FLC Council, the Omaha picketing line was turned over to the state executive council. The council has a large membership and will act as a central body in the state.

Three public mass meetings for the area have already been scheduled, to be held in Red Cloud, Nebr., and Scottsbluff, Nebr. in the near future.

The council has already decided to hold the next mass meeting at Council Bluffs, Ia., and is planning on calling for an all-state meeting in the near future.

Workers Hold Moline Plant in Hopkins

Several scattered picket lines have been set up at the Hopkins plant of the Moline Power Products Company, in an effort to prevent the hiring of non-union workers. The picketing lines were set up in conjunction with a general strike of all the plants of the company.

O'Broderick, the Moline Plant Manager, has announced that all non-union workers will be refused employment at the plant.

Mass Meeting Sponsored by Central Labor Union

The mass meeting sponsored by the Central Labor Union was held in the Hopkins plant of the Moline Power Products Company. The meeting was attended by over 2,000 workers and was well received.

Mass Meeting at St. Paul

The St. Paul plant of the company was also visited by the picketers. The meeting was attended by several hundred workers and was well received.

Workers' Strike in Chicago

A strike has broken out in Chicago in the Moline Power Products Company. The strike was called over the company's refusal to recognize the union and to negotiate a union contract.

Big Business Runs Associated Farmers

The pretenses of Minnesota's "Associated Farmers" are further exposed recently in an article by Morris W. Cleland, who was formerly the editor of the St. Louis Post Dis tusk. Cleland has just made a trip to the area and has discovered that the Associated Farmers in California are just another "front" for the Rockefeller interests.

Inائر. THE ST. LOUIS POST DIS
tusk says: "The Associated Farmers have been setting up a base of operations in California, using Hollywood as a headquarters. They have employed a number of well-known actors and actresses to appear in their commercials and to give public speeches on the benefits of Associated Farmer's products. The goal is to create a favorable image for the company and to raise consumer awareness."

For Bread, Against War
(The following speech, giving the attitude of the WPA and the State Federation of Labor toward the war, was delivered by Union Secretary Rabbi Louis K. Katz, recording secretary of United Federation of Labor, at a meeting of the Federal Workers of the State Federation on December 7, 1935.

We believe that to conduct a war is to destroy the peace of the world. We believe that to undermine the peace of the world is to undermine our own peace. We believe that to undermine the peace of the world is to undermine the peace of the world.

What war means to the individual worker, to the individual family, to the individual community. We believe that war is a colossal drain on the wealth and resources of the world. We believe that war is a colossal drain on the wealth and resources of the world.

We believe that war is a colossal drain on the wealth and resources of the world.

We believe that to conduct the war is to conduct the war is to conduct the war.
