The Educational Committee of the Farmer-Cooperative Labor Council made a report of recent Council work and submitted recommendations for future work. The report was before the 11th annual meeting of the Minneapolis Central Labor Union. There was a large attendance.

The program submitted by the Economic Committee was endorsed with minor changes and was adopted by the council. The American Federation of Labor and the American Federation of Labor and Allied Trade Unions (the AFAP), the two federations from which the council was formed, were the only organizations that received any recognition. Among the bodies named in the program are the city council, the state central labor council, and the National Labor Council. The council is one of the few unions in the state that do not have a labor union in their local.

Next month, the council will hold a meeting in the state capital, with the purpose of preparing for the council meeting on April 1st. It is expected that the organization will be expanded and will be stronger than ever before.

Omaha in the Bag-Teamios Head South

At least for now it looks as if the Teammios, a big Omaha sporting club, will not be in the bag this sea¬ son. At least that is what their pres¬ ident says. The club, which has already had two different man¬ ered managers this season, is now run by a committee of three.

Detroit Drivers Expose Record of Frank XX Martel

As members of General Driver Local 271 continue to picket the freight house in the house Martel's ruling which had jeopardized the job of the drivers to the Brewery Warehouse, many stories concerning the incident which happened a week earlier are heard against Martel which, when widely known, will explain all of the time Martel's record.

Local 131 "Gas and Suds"

From the reports we hear that the strike was caused by the striking team of dozes and 16-dozen per roll. The strike was caused by the insufficient men for the heavy work. The employees of brewery companies have been working for six weeks and have been getting no pay for the last two weeks. The strike was caused by the insufficient men for the heavy work.

The new tools we have heard are good, but they are not the same as the old tools. We have heard of the old tools being used by the same men for the same work. We have heard of the new tools being used by the same men for the same work.
