Watt Notes

The state Federation of Labor meeting in St. Paul, Monday, was attended by 5,700 delegates. The size and importance of the gathering is a fact that the state labor leaders in this state have big plans in mind for the coming year. The state Federation of Labor leaders will next meet in convention in St. Paul, next spring.

SPRING IS HERE

The fact that spring is definitely here is evidenced in the reports submitted by a union representative who was among the labor leaders who attended the state Federation of Labor meeting in St. Paul. He reported that the temperature reached 75 degrees on the first day of spring.

T.J.C. Delegates from rural areas arrive in the city

The new laws are being enforced around the city.

I.T.O. trouble is at a minimum

No strikes have occurred in the city.

DIARY WORK

Laudy done as well as the inside work at the Lowes Wash shop where several trades are being employed.

Funeral-Counsel-Labor Council elected permanent officers at its May meeting Tuesday. The foreman, F. K. Donnelly and union leader, Mr. Donnelly were re-elected.

Local 544 will have a largebond meeting Tuesday.

No privileged group has ever been permanently denied the right to work without pressure from below.

Spring is coming and we are looking forward to another successful season.
