A New Stage in the Bosses Fight Against Organized Labor

(An Editorial)

The Stassen movement, the conspicuous piece of anti-labor legislation that can only be compared to the Baltimore coal strike, has now passed both houses and only awaits the signature of the President, who has already declared that he will sign the bill in its final form "as he can accept." We can dividends to the wage-earning and the home-minded political compromiser who seek to do this bill to the death. The state that has this bill means to every person who buys for a living a campaign that cannot be reversed from the political field. But the state that has this bill also means to every person who buys for a living a campaign that cannot be reversed from the political field.

What every worker must understand is that the labor movement has been caught in the draft of which originated in the councils of the Minneapolis Teamsters' Association.

This marks a new stage in the fight of the employers for power over the workers.

In 1914 the Minneapolis union movement, with the General Drivers Union at the spearhead, started the open-shop movement in the state.

The same open-shopers who were defeated in 1914 are now in control of the Minneapolis administration. They have been in office since 1914 and have never been defeated by the people. They have never failed to carry out the campaign of the Minneapolis Teamsters' Association. They have never failed to carry out the campaign of the Minneapolis Teamsters' Association. They have never failed to carry out the campaign of the Minneapolis Teamsters' Association.

Labor's Political Campaign Launched

F.L. and Trade Union Campaign Committee Completes Labor's Political Campaign Committee—All Unions Urged to Make Every Member a Campaigner—Organize Local Union—Campaign—Campaign Headquarters Being Readied

With the ferocious Stassen labor bill now only awaiting Stassen's signature, labor forces in Minneapolis closed this week on the political field and prepared for the campaign for the election of a labor majority in the state legislature and the state machinery entirely in the hands of the Stassen Associated Republicans, the imperative need for a labor majority in the state legislature to win for the workers in the state legislature to win for the workers.

The LABOR RALLY

Failing to get the list of candidates approved by the Minnesota Democratic State Committee, the Stassen Associated Republicans have announced the organization of a new labor political organization, the "Labor Political Campaign Committee." This organization will consist of all labor unions, including the Minneapolis Teamsters' Association, the Minneapolis Miners' and the Minneapolis Building Trades.

The Labor Political Campaign Committee will consist of all labor unions, including the Minneapolis Teamsters' Association, the Minneapolis Miners' and the Minneapolis Building Trades.

Lullaby Strikers Hold Out For Full Seniority Rights

Stevens Point, Wis.—Negotiations between the Furniture Workers Union Local 644 and the Lullaby Furniture Corporation, which started last Monday, have continued for the past week. Local 644 had called a two-day strike against the Lullaby plant, but the company's management refused to bargain with the union to avoid the strike.

Meeting Next Monday

On Monday, April 9, at 4, at the Stevens Point dining hall, the company will meet with the union representatives to discuss the possibility of a settlement. The meeting is expected to be the last formal attempt to resolve the dispute.

Seniority Buy

The company has agreed to purchase the members of the union's seniority list in order to settle the dispute. The buyout will allow the company to hire new workers without disrupting the union's seniority rights.

Local 1805 Program to Joins Whirl Plooms

Stevens Point, Wis.—A new program is planned by the local union to join with the Whirlpool Corporation. The union has been working to improve wages and conditions for its members.

New Members Invited

The union has invited new members to join, and the program will be expanded to include more benefits for its members. The union continues to work with the Whirlpool Corporation to improve conditions for its members.

Johntagen Co. Still Unfair To Local 103

The Johntagen Company, located at 103 W. Broadway, is still unfair to its employees. The company has not addressed the complaints of its workers, and the union continues to negotiate with them.

Demand Union Clocks

The union has been demanding union clocks for its members. The company has refused to provide union clocks, and the union continues to negotiate with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Hanson, 203 E. Broadway, Passes Away

The Federal Workers Section of the Lullaby plant has lost one of its leaders, Mrs. Hanson, of the Lullaby plant, who passed away on Friday.

I don't see why anyone should blame the employers, I know that the two employers are responsible for the success of this plant.

Local 644 Youth Carry Fight On NYA Cuts

Using "sufficient funds" as an excuse, the National Youth Administration has forced through large cuts in the program which affected some of the Lullaby workers. The company has informed the workers that they will be paid for the days they have worked.

Any parent should protest to the local board, and the local union should make a complaint to the Department of Works. The Department of Works has the power and authority to cancel "sufficient funds" as a reason for the cut.

The Lullaby Section of the National Youth Administration has been successful in preventing each of the Lullaby workers from being cut. Each of the workers has been told that his work will continue as long as he is willing to continue working under the "sufficient funds" cut.

The Jewel Box at 11th and Market has signed an agreement with Local 103, the Bakery, Confectionery, Tobacco Workers and Grain Millers.

A Few Meter Readers Still in the Field

All water meters in use are to be replaced by a new meter that reads the flow of water rather than the pressure. The new meter is more sensitive and will provide readings that are more accurate. A few meter readers are still in the field, but these will be replaced as soon as possible.

With or Without

The weather forecast for the next few days is uncertain. There is a chance of rain, but it is not expected to be heavy. The temperatures will be mild, with temperatures around 40-50 degrees Fahrenheit.

The Northwest Organizer—5 Years—Eugene Debs on the Labor Press

With this issue—Vol. 5, No. 1—the Northwest Organizer is now in its fifth year of publication and, as such, it is in the midst of becoming a recognized voice in the labor movement. This achievement is not only due to the hard work of our editors, but also to the support of our readers who have made our newspaper a trusted source of information and inspiration.

The Northwest Organizer is a weekly newspaper dedicated to the promotion of socialist principles and the advancement of the labor movement. It is published in Seattle, Washington, and is distributed throughout the Pacific Northwest and beyond. The paper covers a wide range of topics, including labor organizing, political developments, and cultural events, all from a socialist perspective.

The paper’s editor, Jim Milo, has been at the helm of the paper for over five years and has worked tirelessly to ensure that the Northwest Organizer remains a vital resource for workers and activists alike.

In this issue, we are pleased to feature an article by Eugene Debs, a prominent labor leader and socialist politician, who was a key figure in the labor movement of the early 20th century. Debs was a vocal advocate for workers’ rights and social justice, and his influence can still be felt today.

The Northwest Organizer is proud to continue its mission of providing a platform for the voices of those who strive for a more just and equitable society, and we look forward to sharing our stories with our readers for many years to come.
