With the Dairy Workers Local 471

The Twin City Lumber Company will renew its working agreement with the Dairy Workers Local 471 on May 15, and on May 16, 1939, the members of the Dairy Workers Local 471 will go on strike for a new contract.

Ralph McIlhiney, our first man, has initiated the strike to demand a new contract which will provide for more favorable working conditions and a higher rate of pay.

The company has further indicated that it will not work during the period of the strike, and the members of the Dairy Workers Local 471 will not have the opportunity to work.

The union will continue to fight for a new contract which will provide for a fair and equitable settlement of all grievances.

KEEPING STEP WITH 544

By Mickey Dunn

The Sunday CLU meeting on the Federal Building plaza was an occasion for a musical interlude in the movement of the thousands of workers. A band, through diapason of the day, was enjoying the symphony of the sidewalk, performing their deeds of civic duty. The clanging cymbals and drums added to the general noise, the rhythm of the steps of the members, the clapping of their feet, and the cheers of the audience. The Sunday CLU meeting was one of the many events that have transpired during the life of this organization. It is one of the many organizations that have contributed to the civic life of the city.
