Pat Ansbury of Louisiana Cities Need for Area Pact

The following description of Pat Ansbury, business manager of the Minneapolis Local 88 and Daily Workers Union Local 261 of Louisiana, Ky., appeared in the weekly Red Banner, published in the Louisville Times. We pass it on to our readers both for its description of Pat Ansbury (who has always shown a warm interest in the progress of the Minneapolis movement) and for his hearty expression of the need for the standard of living as 'The Northwest Organizer'.

"Mr. Ansbury is an absolute bread winner," he wrote. "He has a good time and enjoys the friends he makes. We need his kind of person to spread the good news and work to improve the conditions of our people."

"When cut-through competition is cut through, the truck drivers are happy, understanding men, working for their right to earn a decent living."

"Mr. Ansbury preached. "Companies can't short them, they need them, they want them. They pay a man more to make his wage values pay off in the long run."

The thing as far as workers are concerned is: it is possible to have a more efficient method of doing business, but the cost must be reduced to a point where the worker can live and work with a decent standard of living.

The propaganda for the Standard of Living is a fact. We need the men to go about the propaganda that is spreading through the workmen of the area."

"We need men who will do the job of spreading the good news and work to improve the conditions of our people."
Why the Jobless Are Demonstrating

Following is the text of a speech to be delivered over Station WAG in Thursday's noon hour, at 12:25 p.m. by Karl Kuhn of Local 544 of the Federal Workers Union:

I hope you are aware of our needs for food, clothing, and other necessities of life. We are facing a situation that is worse than ever before. We are out of work. We have no money. We are hungry. We are cold. We are sick. We are despairing.

The government is not doing enough to help us. The society is not making the necessary changes to ensure our well-being. We are not being heard.

We, the unemployed, demand immediate relief. We demand work. We demand food. We demand shelter. We demand respect.

The speech will be broadcast over Station WAG on Thursday, June 1, 1932, at 12:25 p.m.
