I'm back 544 in Transfer Dispute

International Brotherhood of Teamsters Supports Local 544 in Transfer Controversy - Teamsters Join Bonus in Attack on Transfer Section - Governor's Three-man Commission Submits Report Wednesday morning on its hearing-
The dispute between the Minneapolis General Drivers and the Minneapolis Transfer Association

Letter From John Gillespie Endorsing Strike

Following are excerpts from the report of the Governor's three-man commission submitted Wednesday morning on hearing the dispute between the Minneapolis General Drivers and the Minneapolis Transfer Association:

Malcolm G. Gates: Local 544 has only been organized for two years, but has already accomplished a great deal in the way of establishing ownership control throughout the Transfer Section, is firmly established and has fully justified its existence.

George L. Mastin: The gates set up by the Transfer Association are just a contractual agreement. The gates are set up by the Transfer Association.

Government Secretary Tammo: The Governor's letter of today serves to emphasize the importance of the union's determination to settle the dispute.

Stassen Slave Act Roundly Condemned By St. Paul Trades & Labor Assembly

As it stands presently proposed that the Stassen Labor Act be generally in effect throughout the State of Minnesota. The only form of organization that appears to be in the interest of the workers is the Stassen Labor Act.

To get the workers into the Stassen Labor Act, a local labor organization must be formed. The local labor organization must be formed.

Building Material Firms Renew Pact

On June 27th Local 544 renewed its working agreement with the building material industry in Minneapolis. The new contract is almost identical with last year’s pact, a change being that overtime will be paid after 10 hours at the rate of time and one-half. The pact is retroactive to June 1st and will run for one year. Following is the complete text of the new building material agreement:

WORKING AGREEMENT

The Building Material Industry of Minneapolis, represented by this Union, acting through the Building Material Industry Union Board, will be known as the Employer.

The Union shall be the sole bargaining agent for all employees engaged in the building material industry in Minneapolis.

The Building Material Industry Union Board or its representatives shall have the right to visit any job at any time, and the Employer shall make all employees available for such visits. The Employer agrees to make all necessary arrangements for such visits.

The Employer agrees to make all employees available for all union meetings and working conferences.

The Union and the Employer agree to continue their working agreement under the same terms and conditions as the current contract unless a new agreement is reached within 30 days after the expiration of the current contract.

What the New Relief Bill Means

On Thursday the United States Senate passed the Roosevelt-Wooldridge relief bill, and on Friday Congress finally adjourned for the general election without taking any action whatever on the package of legislation that Roosevelt had asked the Congress to approve.

As the New York Times wrote on Sunday, "The WPA and $117,000,000, which was the exact sum asked by the president...."

On Tuesday, the Republican and Democrats in Congress joined in adding a number of important amendments to the WPA package. The most important of these was a provision that would allow the government to make loans to the states for a period of up to 20 years.

On Wednesday, the House of Representatives passed a number of amendments to the bill, including one that would allow the government to make loans to the states for a period of up to 20 years.
