Bitter N. Y. Milk Strike Ends With Union Victory

New York City—The up-staged strike of the New York Dairy Farmers ended yesterday when the union won a settlement of $5 a barrel for milk. The entire compromise of this strike and their present strike settlement is reported to have drawn the support of $5.50 per barrel.

During the six-day strike the toll came to one picket killed as a result of being deliberately run over by a fake milk driver, and scores injured, not all pickets, however. The strike was a result of the beginning and resulted in a 17 per cent markdown of the metropolitan milk supply. Even the additional state of Pennsylvania required dramatic changes.

Another Load From City and Sanitary Drivers Local 664

By Wally Raus

On the last day of the strike, the city and sanitary drivers, drivers of milk delivery service in the city, were paid a 50-cent raise. The contract was signed by the union's representative, R. A. Wright, chairman of the union's committee on the contract. The agreement was attended to by the union's secretary, J. A. Raus, and the Sanitary Drivers, represented by J. A. Wright, chairman of the Sanitary Drivers' Committee.

The agreement provides: To be in effect for one year.

Creamette Strike Ends With Union Victory

At the strike of the Creamette Dairy, the strike between the workers and the management ended in a settlement of $5 a barrel for milk.

Tom Giddiss, driver of the Creamette Dairy, has accepted a position in New York City, and will join the union. The Creamette Dairy is located at 12212, just east of the city limits. The strike began due to the unorganized condition of the workers.

The Creamette Dairy has been in business for over 10 years. The company is owned by J. A. Wright, chairman of the union's committee on the contract. The agreement was attended to by the union's secretary, J. A. Raus, and the Sanitary Drivers, represented by J. A. Wright, chairman of the Sanitary Drivers' Committee.

AFL Convention
In New York Flays
NewDealWAFLaw

The powerful New York State Federation of Labor, representing over 100,000 members, convened in New York City last week for its 25th annual convention. Entry against management policy that the AFL policy was rejected by the delegates in favor of a plan providing for a 3rd term endorsement for Roosevelt. Previous conventions in 1922 and 1928 had endorsed Roosevelt.

The convention also passed a resolution condemning sentimentalism on the farm. The resolution called for a 3rd term endorsement of the New Deal laws. Roosevelt.

The convention met to discuss the current labor situation in the United States. It was held in a hotel in New York City.

The result of the Great Depression is that the number of men on the streets is down. Those whose living is dependent on the streets are not all able to go along with those who are able to go along. The depression has caused a decrease in the number of men on the streets.

The trade union leaders who have been able to go along with the cuts have been the most successful. The number of men on the streets has been reduced to a minimum.

Last Thursday there was a hearing on the question of the necessity for a reduction of the number of men on the streets. The question was not discussed.

Horses Earn More Than Workers

Horses earn more than workers. In one instance, a horse earned $12 a week, while a worker earned $5 a week. According to William Wa, workers are not as profitable as horses.
