Highlights of Our Christmas Party

As the CPD closed the assembly last Saturday afternoon, the members of the Christmas party sponsored by all sections of the CPD were given a variety of festive treats at the CPD headquarters. For the guests, there were various food items such as cakes, pies, gingerbread cookies, and sleigh rides for the children. The event was a great success, and the CPD members enjoyed the festive atmosphere.

Fifty-two hundred youngsters packed the CPD armory last Saturday afternoon as guests of the Minneapolis Teachers' Council, to enjoy the Christmas party for children in this part of the country. From the time the doors opened at 1:30 until the party adjourned at 6:30, the armory was a scene of mass entertainment.

The Minneapolis Teachers' Council and the Minneapolis Boy Scouts, through the courtesy of the Minneapolis Armory, furnished all the entertainment, with the Minneapolis Teachers' Council furnishing the clowns, and the Minneapolis Boy Scouts furnishing the amusement. The entertainment included clowns, amusements, and a variety of games for children.

Minneapolis, St. Paul Retail Bakery Drivers Gain in New Contract

About two hundred men are covered by the new retail bakery drivers' agreement, signed last Friday morning, by H. H. Vail, president of the Minneapolis St. Paul Retail Bakery Drivers Union, Local 379, and E. D. Hodgson, general manager of The Minneapolis St. Paul Bakery Drivers Union, Local 379. The new agreement covers all retail bakery drivers in the Minneapolis area.

The new agreement covers all retail bakery drivers in the Minneapolis area. It provides for a minimum wage of $1.25 per hour for all drivers and for a minimum of two days off per week. The agreement also provides for a pension plan for drivers who have worked for the company for at least five years.

Zero Hour In Laundromat Dispute Near

Laundromat owners in Minneapolis were preparing Wednesday afternoon to receive the decision of an election by the Minneapolis St. Paul Retail Bakery Drivers Union, Local 379, on the issue of whether to unionize the laundromat workers. The union represents the Minneapolis St. Paul Bakery Drivers Union in the negotiations.

The laundromat owners have been fighting the union for several months, alleging that the union is trying to force them to pay higher wages. The union counters that the laundromats are not able to pay higher wages and that the workers deserve a better deal.

Shorter Hours Won By Bakery Drivers

A shorter work week for retail bakery drivers and inside men, and a wage increase for inside men, were the results of a new contract signed by the International Brotherhood of Teamsters, Chauffeurs, Warehousemen and Helpers of America and the Retail Bankers Industry of Michigan, Inc. The agreement, effective November 30, was the result of a 10-day strike by I.B.T.C.W.H.H.A. and Michigan Bakery Employers Association which began November 20.

The mail box at the Y. C. garages is now a lot smaller for inside men and holiday cards which have been arriving at a record pace, can now be stored without fear of being mixed up.

What is the Game Of the N. W. Bank In Puffer Strike?

Runners Perist That Northwestern National Bank Is Keeping Out Our Stockholders at Street Plant, Using Union as Scarecrow—Bank Has Refused to Meet Effort to Avoid Settlement of 16-Week Dispute—Strike Plant Housing Funds—Strikers Unmarried, ‘Out Fight to Victory, Choosy of Charles Baskets

Is the Northwestern National Bank using the Puffer-Baldwin strike as a weapon against the stockholders of this woodwork company?

That is the question which is being asked—and answered—affirmatively in many Minnesota circles.

The strike of Puffer-Baldwin workers, affiliated with the Painters and Allied Trade Union, now is in its fifth week. All attempts at a reasonable settlement of the dispute have failed and the men have been locked out by the bank, in favor of executive officers and they said they don't intend to return until a settlement is made with a view to winning the strike until victory is won.

 striker's answer: In their opinion, the strike is justified, in view of the fact that the men have been out for a considerable time, and the interest of the men is absolutely right. The strike is a just one and the workers are justified in making it.

The inside story of the strike, from the viewpoint of the bank, is that it is not justified, and that the men are not justified in making it.

The Strike Continued: The strike continued for the second week, and the situation is the same. The men are still out, and the bank is still holding firm. The situation is critical, and it is likely that the strike will continue for a long time.

Farmer-Coo-Labor Council Applauded in Northfield

Including the historic of William Schilling, civil worker for the organization. The Farmer-Coo-Labor Council is receiving much applause for its work in Northfield. The council's work is being strongly supported by the citizens of the town.

Despite the fact that many roads which prevented many of the men from working were not opened, forty percent braved the roads to attend a meeting of the council on March 1. In order to hold another meeting at a later date, they met in a public square in order to give the farmers and their workers a chance to get together and discuss the problem of the strike.

Mr. Schilling, who is the leader of the council, has been very active in organizing the farmers and their workers. He has convinced them that they have a right to organize so that they can have a voice in their own affairs.

If any farmers fail to read the weekly issue of the Farmer-Coo-Labor Council's paper, which is called "Farmers' Advocate," they are reminded to do so. The paper is printed in a large type and is easy to read.

The council has been very successful in organizing the farmers and their workers. They have been able to get their point across and have convinced many of them that they need a voice in their own affairs.

Labor Needs Its Own Party

On the National Picket Line

Keeping Step With 544

by Mickey Dunne

At this time of year union men and women are more likely to think about union benefits to which they are entitled. The Seafarers Union is offering a simple rule of thumb: the more you pay in union dues, the more you get back in benefits.

The Seafarers Union, which represents more than 50,000 seamen and their families, offers a variety of benefits, including health and dental insurance, life and disability insurance, and a pension plan.

Drivers Have Own Xmas Party

Officials and officers of the union housed in the Driveway Hotel have their own Christmas party this year. The hotel, located at 560 S. Wabash Ave., is just across the street from the Driveway Hotel.

The hotel, which has been in operation for 10 years, is owned and operated by the Driveway Hotel. It is one of the largest hotels in the city, with 300 rooms.

Merry Christmas to all our friends at the Driveway Hotel.

Well Worth the Money

It is not often that a union can claim to have "well worth the money" in its activities, but the Seafarers Union has done just that. The union is one of the largest in the world, with more than 500,000 members.

The union has been active in many areas, including health and safety, workers' rights, and political issues. It has been a leader in the fight for higher wages and better working conditions for seamen.

The Seafarers Union is also active in the fight for workers' rights, including the right to organize and the right to strike. The union has been successful in many of these battles, and its members have won many important victories.

The Seafarers Union is also active in the fight for political change, including the fight for a higher minimum wage and the fight for a longer vacation.

The union has also been active in the fight for environmental rights, including the fight for clean air and water and the fight for a safer workplace.

The Seafarers Union is also active in the fight for social change, including the fight for equal pay for women and the fight for gay rights.

The union has also been active in the fight for international rights, including the fight for peace and the fight for the rights of workers in other countries.
