On the National Picket Line

In the midst of all thinking men and women, there is no place where there is likely to be any doubt that the present labor problem is generally and actually engaged in a war against labor movement. The present direct action of labor is the issue of the age, the issue of the hour, the issue of the generation. Dr. John Dewey, the famous philosopher, has said: "In America the labor movement is a vital and necessary part of the social life of the nation."

General Council of AFL and International Brotherhood of Teamsters Lead Personal Investigation into Blackout of Labor’s Rights and Liberties in Sioux City, Iowa

J. C. Bamber, president of the General Council of the AFL and international Brotherhood of Teamsters, recently arrived in Sioux City to lead a personal investigation into the labor troubles that have been developing in that city.

The investigation was instigated by an explosion of sentiments in the city, where a strike has been raging for several weeks.

The investigation was instigated by an explosion of sentiments in the city, where a strike has been raging for several weeks.

In the meantime, the labor movement has been making headway, and the only direction in which it is being made is along the lines of better wages and working conditions, but at the same time it is obvious that for the individual worker, the strike is just the beginning, and that for the individual union, the strike is just the beginning.

Sioux City, Iowa—Throwing its full weight against the intransigence of the men, the central workers’ organization in Sioux City, the American Federation of Labor, has started a new drive to organize the workers in the city.

The drive, which is being led by the United States Congress, is a direct result of the recent strike in the city, and it is being conducted by the United States Government, which has been requested by the workers in the city to conduct the drive.
