Farmers-Coop Labor Head BrINGS Union Aid to Dairy Men

By Paul A. Rasmussen, Executive Secretary of the Farmers-Coop Labor Council of Minnesota

The Farmers-Coop Labor Council of Minnesota has been very active in organizing dairy farmers into cooperatives. This is the result of a policy that has been developed to bring the attention of the public to the consumption of dairy products.

Milk Sales Vital to State

A survey of the dairy industry today shows that the consumption of dairy products is still on the increase. The demand for milk and dairy products is growing, and the dairy industry is showing signs of recovery.

Mr. Smith Vital to State

Mr. Smith is doing a vital job in helping to improve the economy of the state. He is working hard to promote the growth of the dairy industry and to ensure that the state has a strong and healthy dairy sector.

We were half-hearted in writing this editorial in the Minneapolis Star-Tribune, as it is not our usual practice to write about the anti-war movement. But the people of this country are not as apathetic as we thought they were.

And the people don’t want to change. They are not ready to change. They are not interested in changing their minds. They are not ready to change their ways.

What is National Defense

Exactly what is the meaning of “national defense”? All the newspapers today talk about national defense, but only one of them is talking about national defense.

Millions of Skilled Men Still Idle

The real question is, what can be done to help these skilled men find work? The only answer is to create more jobs.

We believe that the people of this country want to work and contribute to the welfare of the nation. They want to be productive members of society.

William Green Issues a Warning

May 11, 1940

The nation is at war, and the time has come for each individual to do his part in the war effort.

The unions have a responsibility to help in this war, and they will play a vital role.

But the industrialists and their government must recognize the needs of the people and the country.

Make Minneapolis a Union Town

As the demand for labor increases, the need for organized labor becomes more urgent. The time has come for all workers to join a labor union.

Grain King Workers Ask ‘For a Boost’

A new proposal being considered by the Board of Regents of the University of Minnesota would require the university to provide a boost to unionized workers.

The proposal would make the university a model for other employers.

The workers are demanding an increase in wages for all unionized workers.

The university administration has agreed to consider the proposal.

We are calling on all workers to join a union and support the proposal.

The time has come for the university to join the labor movement.
City Charter Union Seeking An "Angel" to Back Scheme

The Minneapolis City Charter Commission, a handful of promoters seeking to climax the ignominious city charter plight with a 300-foot "Angel" to back their $3,000,000 war bond drive, opened a meeting in the YMCA.

The commission is said to have been intrigued by reports that copies of their proposed charter are being circulated.

When asked from the floor how the campaign is going, Mr. Miller, who is credited with bringing the city money, responded, "We put it out as a city movement." It wasn't clear what the city movement was.

City charter leaders throughout the United States, believing that forces were at work in Minneapolis seeking to hijack the city charter plan, have been trying to obtain an explanation of the movement. The commission has assured them that it is a "city movement." It was not clear what that means.

Perhaps this is no surprise, knowing the city charter plan has been the subject of an unhappy experience of other cities with similar schemes.

A Warning from Toledo Union Leaders

The Toledo City Charter Commission, through its secretary, the Toledo City Charter Union, sent the following to "all leaders throughout the state:" "There is a deceptive campaign being waged for the Toledo charter scheme that makes it appear to be a transfer of the city charter from one set of leaders to another. It is true that the Toledo charter is recognized as a city charter plan, but the organized party that is seeking to get it into the city of Toledo is the same party that has been involved in similar actions in the city of Minneapolis.

This is not the first time that the city manager has been used by the city council to secure the assistance of a neighboring community. The city council is not a body that is composed of persons who are able to make decisions of a community. The city council has been known to act as a tool of the city manager and is the city manager's party in the community. And don't let anybody say that they are the city manager's party. They are independent of the city manager and they have been playing that role for the past three years.
