Carstter Ouster
Is Blow to Labor;
Stassen’s Neck Out

Under pressure of Big Business in this state, Stassen-Heap Conclave voted Saturday to eject August V. Carstter as state director of vocational education of the National Labor Federation. This was the issue that dominated the sessions of the convention of the American Federation of Labor and Industrial Union in Minneapolis.

For Trade Union Wages and Conditions On All Government Defense Work!

The NATIONAL PICKET LINE

Roland Sulli

When the United Auto Workers, now nominally known in St. Louis, on July 25th, the top leadership will be able to demand a detailed report of the "progress and activities" of the union's work of the past year.

If an official report is made, the top leadership is to be forced to admit that "the old guard," the Fred Moeller, the allegedly discredited and the supposed." Free publications, were all temporary employees. That is not the position of the UAW. To do anything about the problem, the members have to be involved.

They would also have to admit that they are not the only ones opposing the strike. The strike is beneficial to the workers. The strike on the boys' wages is a real strike. This is the first time in the history of the United Auto Workers that there has been a strike on the boys' wages. It is the first time in the history of the United Auto Workers that there has been a strike on the boys' wages. Strike in Duluth in 2nd Month

The strike of the Duluth Drive Local Union 446 against the St. Paul, Moline, and Duluth-Wells bakes heavy carcass contract is now in its second month.

Despite the company's claims that the contract is unfair and that the union is not interested in arbitration, the company and the union are working towards a settlement.

A settlement has not been reached, but both parties have agreed to continue negotiations.

A reduction in weekly hours is being carried out at the plant. The workers are being paid 10 cents an hour less than the regular rate.

The company is currently negotiating with the union to reduce the hours to 40 hours per week.

The company has also agreed to provide a 10% wage increase for all workers in the plant.

The regular monthly meeting of the Neenah Women’s Club, Local 977, was held on Monday, November 27th, at the office of the club.

The meeting was attended by a large number of members who discussed the current activities of the union and the progress being made in their craft.

Children Cared For By Miss Helen

If you are planning a vacation or family trip, you might want to leave your children with someone you can trust. There are many options available today, including child care services, day care centers, and babysitting services.

In many cases, you can find reliable and experienced caregivers who can provide excellent care for your children while you are away.

Local 1859 Votes Against Aid to Sister Unions Attacked by Government

In the May 14th Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners, the local union voted 257 to 0 to support a special assessment of the lodge in order to continue the monthly welfare benefit for a "peaceful" period. The decision was based on the feeling that it was necessary for the union to continue to provide support for its members.

At its July 15th meeting, Local 1859 of the Painters and Allied Trades voted 14 to 5 to reject the recommendation of the executive board to make the assessment.

This decision was based on the feeling that the assessment was a violation of the charter of the union and that the union was best able to determine its own policies.

The United States Department of Justice is directly responsible for the enforcement of laws that protect the rights of workers in the construction industry, which are both written and unwritten as well as constitutional.

The Minneapolis Teamsters—Twenty-Five Years Old

This year the Minneapolis Teamsters Joint Council is celebrating its 25th anniversary. It was on December 21, 1919, that the original Teamsters charter was obtained from the International Brotherhood of Teamsters. The Council had many ups and downs during its first fifteen years, and on December 30, 1935, a new charter was issued. The Council then consisted of the General Drivers Union Local 574, the Milk Drivers Union, the City and Street Railway Divisions and the Cab Drivers Union.

The Teamsters in the state of Minnesota was named the 19th charter issued and was known as Teamster No. 19. In 1924, the Teamsters were divided into two sections, one in the Twin Cities and the other in the outlying areas.

The history of the Teamsters in Minnesota is a rich one, and their contributions to the state have been significant. The Teamsters have played a vital role in the labor movement, and their dedication to improving working conditions and wages has been unparalleled.
