Local 1859 Votes NO to Burke-Wadsworth Scheme

Stating their firm opposition "to any plan of the homes for the boys to be on the war-bonds" and terms made in connection with the Federal "wheat and meat" program, the officers of the Burke-Wadsworth Scheme, the membership of the Furniture Workers Union Local 1859, at a meeting Thursday night, opposed any action against compulsory military training of the war boys. They said that all money appropriated for the war bond campaign was being destroyed in the unemployment and for housing purposes.

The full text of the resolution follows:

"We win, we lose, we are committed. We vote NO to Burke-Wadsworth Scheme!"

Profits Rise, Says AFL

The current issue of the AMERICAN FEDERATION-BETTER WEEKLY MAGAZINE points out that for the first time in the 56 years of labor union struggle profits are running at a rate of over 5 per cent in all industries. The American Federation of Labor has come to the general advance and points out that the cost of living shows signs of going up.

The AFL, he says, needs no exaggerating the huge progress made by Big Business under the national defense program is proved by an article in last Sunday's New York Times, which quotes a survey of 1,000 durables manufacturers for the first half of 1940 and shows that they are earning over 5 per cent in all industries, as compared with 2.4 per cent for the first half of 1939. The former was the lowest profit made by all durables manufacturers for half of 1939. The latter was the year when the labor movement was at its peak. This year, he says, the profits are as high as those of half of 1939 with the launching of the war in Europe.

It is necessary to point out that it is no longer true that war is unprofitable. War is very much like a business transaction, figures constitute irreparable proof of this fact.

Labor Rollies To Defend Carstner Vs. Stassen Move

This is the knowledge that was acquired in Washington during World War I of record rents and tenement houses, a program that was under way.
