AFL, CIO Conventions Open But No Unity Seen

On the National Picket Line

Local 289, Companies Present Evidence to Federal Commission

The future fate of millions of American workers lies in the hands of several hundred delegates who will soon gather in Chicago for the annual conventions of the AFL and the CIO. The conventions, held in major cities across the country, are the largest labor gatherings in the world. The delegates will discuss a wide range of issues, including wages, working conditions, and the future of the labor movement. The conventions are also a key moment in the negotiations between the AFL and the CIO, as they work to achieve unity and to present a united front to the rest of the labor movement. The success of the conventions will have a significant impact on the labor movement and the broader social and economic landscape of the United States.

State Board of Education Continues Stassen Program

At its meeting last Thursday the four-member Stassen Board voted to continue the program of educational excellence that was begun by former Governor Stassen. The program, known as the Stassen Plan, includes a range of initiatives aimed at improving the quality of education in the state. The Board decided to continue the program for another year, with a focus on increasing funding for schools and improving teacher salaries.

CLU Sets Up Political Committee

A union political committee will be set up by the AFL-CIO. The union has long been involved in politics, and the new committee will allow the union to more effectively mobilize its members for political action. The committee will work to elect candidates who support the union's goals and to mobilize members to vote in elections. The committee will also work to organize and mobilize workers in key industries and regions.

Union Guard Will Stage Dance-Turkey Round-up This Saturday Evening

This Saturday night Local 549’s United Steelworkers Guard will hold a dance at the Metropolitan Ballroom, 1127 S. Lake Ave., Minneapolis. The dance will begin at 9:00 p.m. and will feature a turkey dinner, followed by dancing. The dance is open to all members of the union and their families, and is a fun way to celebrate the holiday season.

Launch Fight to Save Sharecropper Sentenced to Die

The poll tax, that device used by Southern landlords to deprive political liberty and democracy to Southern labor, is being attacked by the Southern Labor Defense League, non-partisan defense organization. The poll tax, which has been legalized in the past 50 years, has been used to disfranchise thousands of African Americans. The Southern Labor Defense League is working to overturn the poll tax and to ensure that all citizens have the right to vote.

3,000 Honor Floyd Olson at Meeting

An estimated crowd of 3,000 people attended the meeting to honor Floyd Olson. Olson was a prominent labor leader and a strong advocate for workers' rights. The meeting was held to recognize Olson's contributions to the labor movement and to honor his legacy. The event was attended by a wide range of people, including union leaders, community activists, and labor activists.

Hearing Ends in Local 544 Book

Last Friday afternoon the hearing in the case of Miss Nellie M. Olson, a teacher, was brought to a close. The hearing was held to determine whether the teacher, who has been suspended for her participation in the labor movement, should be reinstated. The hearing was held to ensure that teachers who are engaged in labor activities are not unfairly disciplined.

The Convention, which is the largest gathering of American workers in the country, is an important moment in the labor movement. The delegates will discuss a range of issues, including wages, working conditions, and the future of the labor movement. The success of the conventions will have a significant impact on the labor movement and the broader social and economic landscape of the United States.

In addition to the labor conventions, the event will feature a range of other activities, including speeches, panels, and workshops. The event is open to the public, and all are welcome to attend. The event is an important moment in the labor movement, and is a key moment in the negotiations between the AFL and the CIO. The success of the conventions will have a significant impact on the labor movement and the broader social and economic landscape of the United States.

The convention will also feature a range of other activities, including speeches, panels, and workshops. The event is open to the public, and all are welcome to attend. The event is an important moment in the labor movement, and is a key moment in the negotiations between the AFL and the CIO. The success of the conventions will have a significant impact on the labor movement and the broader social and economic landscape of the United States.

In addition to the labor conventions, the event will feature a range of other activities, including speeches, panels, and workshops. The event is open to the public, and all are welcome to attend. The event is an important moment in the labor movement, and is a key moment in the negotiations between the AFL and the CIO. The success of the conventions will have a significant impact on the labor movement and the broader social and economic landscape of the United States.
Bos's Letter Falls Into Hands of the Burlington Strikers

Letter from Starcher to Boeman Reveals How Buses Work Behind the Scenes to Crush Strikers—NLRB Capsule Letters to Republicans in Washington, D.C.—Burlington Federation of the Public Employees—"Thickhead Plan" of Breaking Strike Is Put in Operation While Starcher Plays with Uncle Dan, Source's Fora

Burlington, Iowa—One of the most astounding and revealing of all the communications that has arrived since the labor movement in recent years has just percolated from the Burlington Strikers. The statement is in the form of a letter to the Burlington Federation of the Public Employees (BFPE) from Mr. George Starcher, representative of the National Labor Relations Board (NLRB) in Washington, D.C.

The letter states that the BFPE, an affiliate of the CIO, is about to dupe the labor movement by its ploy to keep an eye on the union activities. However, the BFPE, which is an affiliate of the CIO, is about to dupe the labor movement by its ploy to keep an eye on the union activities. However, the BFPE will be duped by the NLRB because of the lack of information on the BFPE's activities.

The BFPE, which is an affiliate of the CIO, is about to dupe the labor movement by its ploy to keep an eye on the union activities. However, the BFPE will be duped by the NLRB because of the lack of information on the BFPE's activities.

The BFPE, which is an affiliate of the CIO, is about to dupe the labor movement by its ploy to keep an eye on the union activities. However, the BFPE will be duped by the NLRB because of the lack of information on the BFPE's activities.

The BFPE, which is an affiliate of the CIO, is about to dupe the labor movement by its ploy to keep an eye on the union activities. However, the BFPE will be duped by the NLRB because of the lack of information on the BFPE's activities.

The BFPE, which is an affiliate of the CIO, is about to dupe the labor movement by its ploy to keep an eye on the union activities. However, the BFPE will be duped by the NLRB because of the lack of information on the BFPE's activities.
National Guardians Wins On Army Life in Camp Today

What is it like to be in the army today? Have things changed for the better since 1918? Some of the letters from new recruits on this subject appear in the Nov. 15 issue of the Tri-City Ledger in Jamestown, New York.

The letter reads in part:

"We are being away all day long constructing World War hospitals and camps. We have no time to write."

"Navy"

"AFL and CIO on For Unity in Orders

A new AFL-CIO for Unity in Orders has been reported. The letter reads in part:

"The Executive Board of the AFL-CIO has been informed that the United Steelworkers of America, a new AFL-CIO affiliate, has been organized. The letter states that the Steelworkers have been an AFL affiliate for many years and that the new AFL-CIO affiliate is a result of the merger of the Steelworkers with other unions."

"Keeping Step With 544"

The letter reads in part:

"Keeping Step With 544"

"Launch Twist To Save Sharecropper"

"The letter reads in part:

"Launch Twist To Save Sharecropper"

"New Chump Crowned at Truck Rodeo"

"The letter reads in part:

"New Chump Crowned at Truck Rodeo"

"On the National Picket Line"

"The letter reads in part:

"On the National Picket Line"

"French Unions Are Abolished, Leaders Starve"

"The letter reads in part:

"French Unions Are Abolished, Leaders Starve"

"Cooperative Hosiery Mill Owned by Is Op

"The letter reads in part:

"Cooperative Hosiery Mill Owned by Is Op"

"The letter reads in part:

"Cooperative Hosiery Mill Owned by Is Op"