Make Minneapolis a Union Town

The Northwest Organizer is the official organ of the Minneapolis Teamsters Joint Council, representing the interests of working-class men and women in the area. The page contains various articles and advertisements, including a notice about making Minneapolis a union town, an article titled "Educators Hit at Stagnating Schooling System," and an announcement about the Northwest Organizer itself. The page also features a section on "Six Thousand Kids Have Holiday Fun At Christmas Party" and an advertisement for "Fargo Jury Fires Jack Wirth: Charges of Adrain Stolen."
4-Hour Call Time Decision Is Awarded to Local 544

An arbitration decision of considerable importance in the history of the 4-H Hour Call Time matter was rendered by Arbitrator Charles L. Horn. The case grew out of a dispute between the 4-H Clubs of the Central States, including the 4-H Clubs of the State of Minnesota, and certain 4-H Club leaders who insisted that the 4-H Clubs in the state be allowed to have 4-H Club meetings at any time during the year.

The arbitration hearing was held in St. Paul, Minn., before Arbitrator Charles L. Horn, who is well known in the field of arbitration and has rendered many decisions of great importance.

The case was brought by the 4-H Clubs of the State of Minnesota, represented by Mr. J. W. Johnson, treasurer, who was assisted by Mr. J. W. Thoreson, secretary, and Mr. J. W. Peterson, who acted as counsel.

The 4-H Clubs of the State of Minnesota contended that the 4-H Clubs in the state should be allowed to have 4-H Club meetings at any time during the year, whereas the 4-H Club leaders insisted that the 4-H Clubs in the state should be allowed to have 4-H Club meetings only during the summer months.

The Arbitrator rendered his decision in favor of the 4-H Clubs of the State of Minnesota, who were represented by Mr. J. W. Johnson, treasurer, who was assisted by Mr. J. W. Thoreson, secretary, and Mr. J. W. Peterson, who acted as counsel.
