This week I shall achieve the different groups and individuals, for different reasons, for supporting the Roosevelt Legislation. This law is the most important in the history of the United States.

Thomas W. Laussen, executive head of J. P. Morgan & Co., Inc., was, as an articled clerk for the firm in 1870, the year in which the firm was founded.

The conference was preceded by a series of preliminary meetings of executive boards of the railroad companies.

Tuesday the Minneapolis

Milk Drivers, who have for some time been striving for full-time employment by the dairy companies, received a big boost toward the solution of their problems.

The union announced Wednesday that John R. Burgan, president, had been elected business agent for the union by a large majority. Mr. Burgan had been on the executive board for seven years and was well known and respected.

The new organization of drivers will consist of members of the Minneapolis,

Saint Paul and Twin Cities area.

New Book Warnings of Famine

Famine Stalks Europe

By Alexander Lipset

The author of this commentary on the food crisis in Europe today is the executive director of the American Federation of Labor and Congress of Industrial Workers. He claims that the European situation is the most serious in the past generation and makes a strong plea for food aid to save Europe from famine.

In recent years, "famine stalks Europe" has been a common refrain. The UN Food and Agriculture Organization has declared that Europe faces severe food shortages. This acute situation is primarily due to the high cost of living and the widespread poverty caused by the war.

In Europe, the situation is particularly acute in France, where the cost of living has increased by 30% since the war started. This has led to widespread hunger and malnutrition, especially among the poor and working class.

In the United States, the situation is not as dire as in Europe, but the cost of living has also increased, and many families are struggling to make ends meet. The government has implemented policies to address the problem, but the problem remains.

In conclusion, the situation in Europe is a dire warning for the rest of the world. We must act now to prevent a global food crisis and ensure that everyone has access to enough food to live healthy and productive lives.
