—All Former Benefits Retained—Past is Tribute to Unions and Labor Locals

The first union agreement ever to be signed locally with the Standard Oil company was effected Monday when the Minneapolis-St. Paul Petroleum Local 977 and 975 signed one-year contracts with the company. The contract, signed in the Board of Trade office at 161 North Sixth street, is the last and the best of the three contracts the union has been trying to secure.

Make no mistake, the Minneapolis Labor Temple is the grandest and the strongest labor office in the United States. To form is to sign a union contract with the Standard Oil company, and to go to the jurisdictional conventions and meetings with the union and not to stand aside and let the members go to the Standard Oil offices and sign away their rights. This is the only way to settle the dispute, and it is only right that the workers should have the benefit of the agreement before they sign it.

St. Paul Assembly Votes to Leave Farmer-Labor Group; Will Seek Union Convention

By a majority of 11 to 2 at the St. Paul Trades Labor Council meeting, Tuesday evening, the St. Paul Assembly was voted out of the Farmer-Labor group and the Farm Bureau. The Assembly Committee has been trying to secure a council of some kind, which will include the Assembly and the railway brotherhoods.

"In the end that a constitutional convention will be needed," said Ed Stankiewicz, the head of the railway brotherhoods, "in order to get rid of the state's deadlocks and get the railroads running.

The political party will be the next to go, St. Paul Assembly, the Farmers-Labor, and the Farmer-Labor group, plus the railroad brotherhoods, will together form the new organization, it was decided."

Gold Gas

This muggy March blustery, by the way, is a price of our country and we wonder how it will be to the taxpayers. It is now the last day before the Federal Assembly is due to meet but it may not be many months before all of our business and personal affairs will be referred to the Assembly.

Parliamentary action has already been taken and all of the bills are expected to be referred to the Assembly.

The Federal Assembly is due to meet on Tuesday, March 6th, at 8:00 a.m. in the Assembly Room, 3rd floor, 105 Liberty St., Chicago, Ill., with the bills and resolutions referred to the Assembly in order to be discussed.

The regular and the special called meetings, both of which will be held in the Liberty Convention, are to be held on the 5th and 6th of March. The 5th is the meeting of the convention and the 6th is the meeting of the committee.

In the regular meeting, several resolutions were introduced, one of which was to the effect that "In the end we will all have to do our part," and the other to the effect that "In the end all of us will have to do something for ourselves." The resolutions were introduced and carried and further amended that the resolutions be printed in the local newspapers.

The 289 Blub

Boo, hoo, hoo! Was that too much about the meeting this week? We don't know. We're just trying to keep you informed. And we're not sure if we're doing a good job or not.

Country Gentleman, Tom Olman, was at the meeting this week. He's been very active in the local politics.

Tom Olman has been a strong supporter of the proposal for a state-wide convention to be held in St. Paul. He wasinstrumental in bringing about the convention.

With the Linemasons

We are advised here to help, not injure, any chaplain or helper either. The only thing we are in is that a group of friends facing the same problem may avoid that, they can’t do it, so can’t do it, only can’t do it.

I for one have been helping in working conditions and a day or two, plus. Can any chaplain or helper ever help and be relieved by the union? If so, can’t do it, not can’t do it, not can’t do it.

On your advice of the line to go through to talk to the men in the line, but I have been helping in working conditions and a day or two, plus. Can any chaplain or helper ever help and be relieved by the union? If so, can’t do it, not can’t do it, not can’t do it.

Gassing With

Carnall Mcloy informs us that the Gassing With store on 2nd Ave., N. and 17th St., has had a vert good sales day so far. Despite the cold weather, there have been a lot of customers coming in to buy the latest models of their popular gas grills. The store manager, Sam Johnson, said, "Our sales have been up by about 20% compared to last year, which is a good sign for our business."

Notice No. 1: The following notice is intended to prevent our members from being taken advantage of. If you receive a letter or phone call from anyone claiming to be a representative of a union or association, do not provide any personal information. The organization may be a scam.

Notice No. 2: A local union has been notified that the company is planning to reduce wages. All members should be aware of this and prepare to take action to prevent it.

GusAnderson, 18th & 1st, 26th Avenue

In the local union, there are many members who are not aware of their rights under the collective bargaining agreement. It is important to educate all members about their benefits and the protections they have.

"To all members of Local 1890, please note:

The local union has taken the following steps to prevent wage reductions:

1. Contact all employers immediately to negotiate a fair wage.
2. Organize a strike if necessary to secure a fair wage.
3. Educate all members about their rights.

Let's work together to ensure a fair wage for all.

First World War Created 17,000 New Millionaires in United States,

According to the Department of Labor, the war has failed miserably to curb profiteering of Wages in the industries of defense.

In 1917, the government was powerless to stop business profiteering. It was not until after the war that the government passed legislation to control wages.

In an effort to direct the attention of the people from the extravagant profits accruing to the daily press is hammering away at those workers who are fighting for wage increases to meet the swiftly rising living costs.

The recent report of the American Federation of Labor and Industrial Union of North America (AFL-NIU) on wages paid by the Standard Oil Company, showed that 80 percent of the oil workers earned less than $50 per month in 1940.

This is a significant improvement over the period before the war, when wages were generally lower. The report also indicated that wages in the oil industry have increased steadily since 1940.

Workers in the oil industry, as well as in other sectors, are fighting for higher wages to keep up with the rising cost of living.

A Lesson in Economics

Two years ago, Congress directed the Federal Trade Commission to study American industries to determine the causes of the increase in cost of living. Last week the commission published two reports: one in a series on the steel industry, and the other on the automobile industry.

These reports, which are both based on careful study, show that the increase in costs is largely due to increased labor costs, with other factors playing a smaller role.

The commission's findings indicate that the increase in labor costs is due to a combination of factors, including higher wages, increased worker productivity, and increased demand for labor.

The reports also suggest that there is a need for more research into the causes of the increase in cost of living, as well as into the effect of these factors on the economy.

The commission's recommendations include measures to increase productivity, improve working conditions, and control costs in the industry.

The reports are available for public comment, and the commission will hold hearings on the matter in the near future.

Hotel Unions Name Latz President

Robin Lots of the Laundry Workers Union has been elected as the new president of the Hotel Employees Union, replacing John Latz, who stepped down last year.

Latz was a strong advocate of worker rights and has been a vocal leader in the union, fighting for better wages and working conditions for hotel workers.

The election was held last week, and Lots received a majority of the votes, solidifying his position as the union's leader.

Lots is expected to continue Latz's efforts to improve the working conditions and wages for hotel workers, and to negotiate with employers to secure better benefits for the union's members.

The union is one of the strongest in the country, and Lots' leadership is expected to continue to push for improvements in the industry.
