A Tribute To Debs

By REV. SAMUEL A. CONDO

My first words are from the novel of Robert H. Goddard, "The Last of the Just." It was during the Nazi years, and the author, who is now in Israel, writes:

"These are precious moments. Remember every time you are happy, that you are precious moments. Remember every time you are happy, that you are precious moments. Remember every time you are happy, that you are precious moments. Remember every time you are happy, that you are precious moments. Remember every time you are happy, that you are precious moments."

"He was my best friend," the author continues. "And I am his."

That is the spirit of this page. It is dedicated to our best friend, to the one who gave us the opportunity to be happy, to the one who made us appreciate the value of life, to the one who showed us that there is always a reason to smile, even in the darkest of times. It is dedicated to Debs, our greatest hero, our greatest inspiration, our greatest friend.

National Socialist Conference Denounces

In this time of great unrest, when the working class is facing a new struggle, it is important that we stand together. We must support our brothers and sisters in the struggle for freedom and justice. We must be united in our fight against the forces of oppression and inequality. We must lend a hand to those who are less fortunate than ourselves.

Notice to Readers

This paper is dedicated to the memory of Comrade Debs, who was a great contributor to the socialist movement. It is dedicated to his memory and to the memory of all those who fought for the cause of socialism.

Debs Defines Purpose of Socialist Movement

The purpose and mission of the Socialist Party was never better articulated than by Eugene V. Debs. He said:

"The purpose of the Socialist Party is the overthrow of the capitalist system and its substitution with a cooperative system."

This is the purpose of the Socialist Party, and it is the purpose of every socialist. We must work towards this goal, and we must be ready to take the necessary steps to achieve it.

But what does this mean in practice? How can we achieve this goal? What are the steps we must take?

First, we must educate the masses. We must teach the people about the injustices of the capitalist system, and we must show them the benefits of the socialist system.

Second, we must organize the workers. We must form trade unions and strike for better wages and working conditions.

Third, we must support the Socialists. We must vote for them and work for them in order to elect them to office.

Finally, we must be patient. The road to socialism will not be easy, but we must not lose heart. We must be persistent, and we must be patient. We must keep working, and we must keep fighting, until we achieve our goal.

In conclusion, the purpose of the Socialist Party is the overthrow of the capitalist system and its substitution with a cooperative system. This is the purpose of every socialist, and it is the purpose of every socialist that we should work towards this goal.

REPORT ON CHICAGO CONFERENCE

Memorial of Chicago Conference

TO THE MEMBERS OF THE PARTY:

The Chicago Conference of the Socialist Party of America was held in Chicago last week, and was a remarkable meeting both in the number who were present and in the spirit which animated it. The atmosphere was keen, and the discussions were both spirited and well-informed. The resolutions adopted were all of high importance, and will do much to advance the cause of socialism. We hope that they will be carried into effect, and that our party will continue to grow in numbers and influence.

We want to express our gratitude to the members of the Chicago Party for their hospitality and for the excellent work which they are doing.

Yours sincerely,

The Mooney Case and the Class Struggle

The Mooney case has given us a concrete example of the international solidarity of workers. The case has taken on a new and powerful significance. The struggle of Mooney and the Workers' Union is not a struggle between men but between two classes. It is a struggle for the destruction of the capitalist class, which is the basis of all exploitation and oppression. The capitalist class is the enemy of all workers and it is the capitalist class that stands behind the bosses and the police.

Negroes Organizing in Socialist Party

The Rand School

The new negro is awakening. The black man is learning that he is not a negro without a voice. He is learning that he is a man, and that he has the right to be heard. The black man is learning that he is not a negro without a vote. He is learning that he has the right to vote, and that he has the right to be represented. The black man is learning that he is not a negro without a future. He is learning that he has a future, and that he can build it for himself. The black man is learning that he is not a negro without a past. He is learning that he has a past, and that he can learn from it. The black man is learning that he is not a negro without a future. He is learning that he can build it for himself. The black man is learning that he is not a negro without a past. He is learning that he has a past, and that he can learn from it.

The Change Is Coming

The man without an enemy

You can't hold revolutionaries and at the same time fight for peace. You cannot support the capitalist class and at the same time fight for the destruction of the capitalist class. You cannot support the imperialist war and at the same time fight for the destruction of the imperialist war. You cannot support the Bank of England and at the same time fight for the destruction of the Bank of England.
