The Russian Situation

There seems to be a conspiracy on the part of the capitalist class in every country in the world to destroy the very existence of the Russian Revolution. What is surprising is that the Capitalists have not already succeeded.

The bread of the Russian people is about to be cut off at any moment, and the Bolsheviks are in a very critical position. The capitalists are at the moment in possession of the army, and the workers are only able to act against them through the Food Congress.

The White Army is already in possession of over 3,000,000,000 of the Russian people. It is probable that the Capitalists will be able to hold on to this position for a short time.

The workers must be prepared for the worst. The workers must be ready to fight, and the Bolsheviks must be ready to take the initiative. There is no alternative. If the Capitalists do not succeed, the workers may have to be prepared to take over the government themselves.

7,000 Socialists Shot

The Cat's Out of the Bag

In all cases, the point of pressure is the press. The press is the enemy of the workers. It is the enemy of the workers because it is the voice of the capitalists. The capitalistic press is the voice of the capitalists, and it is their wish to strangle the workers. The workers must organize against the press. The workers must organize against the press in order to gain the power of the press.

However, through a series of unlikely events, John Erwin is led to question his moral compass and the path he has chosen. This inner conflict leads to a series of pivotal decisions that ultimately result in his conversion and transformation into a new person.

John Erwin's journey towards redemption is marked by moments of enlightenment, including encounters with religious leaders, who play a significant role in guiding him towards a more righteous path. These interactions, along with personal experiences and self-reflection, contribute to his personal transformation.

MAKING SOCIALISTS

"Socialism can't make a socialist out of a man. Socialism can only make a socialist of a man. If a man is already a socialist, he will be a socialist of necessity. But if he is not a socialist, he will not become one.

JOHN ERWIN's story is one of transformation and redemption. From a life of crime and violence, John Erwin's journey towards a new path is an inspiration to those seeking to overcome their own struggles.

The Ohio Socialist provides a platform for these narratives of change, celebrating the human capacity for growth and resilience. Join us in subscribing and supporting the mission to share these stories of transformation with others.
