The Mother of Humanity
By LADD
(Written for The Ohio Socialist)

As Emily Wilder and Elizabeth Cady Stanton founded the Women's Clubs, we should not forget that Sophia Dorothea von Hoernle, the wife of the Count of Bismarck, the Queen of Prussia, was the mother of the movement. She was the first woman who, by her brave and successful efforts, brought the question of women's rights into the public sphere.

The Bolshevists: Grave-Diggers of Capitalism

By C. E. Rathenberg

The Bolshevists—what fear and anger the word provokes in the minds of the people for the whole world! Their name has become a household word. Daily the press pours out its denunciation against them. They tell of their warlike plans and threats against the peace-loving nations; of how the race of capital has been driven out of the market; of how the world is in turmoil and bloodshed; of how the Bolshevists are destroying the sacred principle of private property and the established order of society. They talk of how the Bolshevists are undermining the entire foundation of society and consequently mercy and poverty.

But who are these Bolshevists? What are their plans and intentions? Do they really mean to destroy the world? Do they mean to destroy all the good that has been done in the name of the nation and the state? Do they mean to destroy the entire fabric of society and the foundations of civilization? Do they mean to destroy all that we hold dear and precious in this world?

The Bolshevists are not a group of people who are ignorant and uncultured. They are not a group of people who are spiritually dead and devoid of all human qualities. They are not a group of people who are devoid of all human qualities and devoid of all human feelings. They are not a group of people who are devoid of all human qualities and devoid of all human feelings.
