German Workers Gain Victory in Struggle for Industrial Democracy

Bavaria In Control of Workers and Soldiers Council

The struggle for the workers' control of industry was climaxing in Bavaria, where the Socialists had gained a majority in the legislature. The government of the Bavarian Socialists, which was in power, was attempting to suppress the workers' movement by force. The workers, however, were determined to maintain their control of industry and were prepared to fight for it.

Destination Withheld From American Soldier's in Expedition to Invade Russia

Returned Soldier Says People Lived Better Under Bolsheviki and That Latter Avoided Bloodshed

The plight of the Russian soldiers who are being forced to fight for the czar is becoming more and more evident. Many of these men have been drafted into the army against their will, and are being forced to fight for a cause they do not believe in. They are being treated cruelly, and many have been killed or wounded in action. The conditions in the Russian army are deplorable, and the soldiers' families are suffering severely.

Scott Nearing Free

After two days of thrashing the pugilist fell upon Scott Nearing, charging along the rope with a determined look on his face. As Nearing dodged the punch, the pugilist followed with a series of quick jabs. Nearing stood his ground, parrying each blow with ease.

Swedish Toilers in Protest for American Political Prisoners

The Swedish Toilers in Protest for American Political Prisoners were holding a meeting in the Hall of the People. They were protesting against the imprisonment of American political prisoners in Europe. The meeting was attended by a large crowd of people who were sympathetic to the cause.

Chicago Paper Declares Archangel Expedition Failure

The Chicago Tribune declared that the Archangel Expedition had failed. The expedition was sent to Archangel to establish friendly relations with the Bolsheviks. However, the Bolsheviks had been hostile to the expedition, and the Russians had been unable to establish friendly relations with them.

Biased Senate Committee

The Senate Foreign Relations Committee, which is investigating the possibility of the United States entering the war, has been biased in its reports. The committee is composed of senators who are sympathetic to the cause of the Allies, and they have been publishing reports that are favorable to the Allies. The committee has been ignoring the facts and has been publishing reports that are biased.

Savage Sentence Passed Upon National Officials

After several weeks of consideration, Judge M. E. Landis passed a sentence of death upon National officials. The sentence was passed upon the occasion of the fall of Kulykow, the czar's chief of staff, who was executed for his part in the recent revolution. The sentence was passed after a careful investigation of the case, and was considered just and necessary.

Labor Begins Campaign To Repudiate Alliance

Organized labor began a campaign to repudiate the alliance with the Allies. The labor leaders argued that the alliance was being carried out for the benefit of the Allies, and that it was not in the best interests of the labor movement. The campaign was supported by a large number of labor organizations, and was successful in many places.
Manifesto and Program of the Left Wing of the American Socialist Movement

EDITOR'S NOTE: The world has changed many things, among them the tactics of the working class movement of today. New ideas have come in the form of new tactics being practiced. In printing this manifesto of the Left Wing of the American Socialist Movement we do so in the hope that we will make a new contribution to the tactics of the socialists of the United States. Such discussion and consideration of opinion must necessarily accompany any possibility of building in this country a militant and effective Socialist Movement.

INTRODUCTION

The executive of the Socialist Party of America has been deeply impressed by the need for an immediate and decided movement of the Socialist leadership into the Left Wing of the American Socialist Movement. This has been the unanimous conclusion of the members of the Socialist Party of America that no other course can benefit the Socialist Movement in the United States. Such action is the only course which can make the Socialist Party of America a dynamic and effective force in the political and economic life of the United States.

THE TASK OF THE LEFT WING

The Left Wing of the American Socialist Movement is the movement for the immediate and effective transformation of our society into a Socialist society. This movement is the only one which can bring about the immediate and effective transformation of our society. DEBS' LORAIN MEET

A GREAT SUCCESS

The DEBS' Lorain meeting at 123 Main St. last night was a great success! Over 100 members attended, and everyone was excited about the union's latest initiatives. The meeting was chaired by Mr. Smith, and the agenda included updates on the union's financial status, a discussion of the current contract negotiations, and a chance for members to voice their concerns. The meeting concluded with a round of applause for everyone's hard work and dedication.

SOCIALISTS, WIN IN EXETER

The Court of Appeals of New Hampshire has ruled in favor of the Socialists, who were challenging the decision of the Exeter City Council to deny them a permit to hold a meeting. The court ruled that the city council did not have the authority to deny the permit based on the content of the meeting. This is a victory for the Socialists, who have been holding meetings in the city for over a year.

Cruel Punishment Revealed

in American Military System

Almost unbelievable instances of brutality are being reported from American bases throughout the world. In the latest case, a soldier was subjected to inhumane treatment by his superiors. The incident occurred at a military installation in the Far East. The soldier was subjected to severe physical abuse, including beatings and torture, and was denied proper medical care. The incident has sparked outrage among the soldier's peers and has raised questions about the integrity of the American military system.

An Answered Prayer

By GEORGE BRADFORD SHEEN

In the name of Jesus Christ, I wish to report to you that my prayer for a miracle has been answered. I wrote to the Pope, expressing my concern about the plight of the poor and the need for justice. The Pope responded by sending me a letter expressing his support and by asking me to pray for the poor and the oppressed. I did as I was asked, and I have now received a letter from the Pope that I consider to be a miracle. The letter contains a message that I believe is from God, and it gives me hope and strength to continue my work.
