Ohio Coal Miners Come to Debs's Defense

DIDDLES BOTTOM COAL DIGGERS JOIN LIBERATOR ARMY IN BATTLE FOR RELEASE OF PRISONERS

THE MINERS HAVE SPOKEN PO

For Debs and all political prisoners the strike on the Ohio Coal fields is not a temporary protest against the violation of the labor clauses in the contract. It is the most serious of all strikes, a movement of the miners to secure the release of the imprisoned leaders of labor. It is the battle for the liberty of all workers. It is the battle for the release of all political prisoners. It is the battle for the right to work and to live. It is the battle for the right to organize and to strike. It is the battle for the right to vote and to be heard. It is the battle for the right to be free. It is the battle for the right to life. It is the battle for the right to liberty. It is the battle for the right to democracy. It is the battle for the right to human rights. It is the battle for the right to be free. It is the battle for the right to be free. It is the battle for the right to be free. It is the battle for the right to be free. It is the battle for the right to be free. It is the battle for the right to be free. It is the battle for the right to be free. It is the battle for the right to be free. It is the battle for the right to be free. It is the battle for the right to be free. It is the battle for the right to be free. It is the battle for the right to be free. It is the battle for the right to be free. It is the battle for the right to be free. It is the battle for the right to be free. It is the battle for the right to be free. It is the battle for the right to be free. It is the battle for the right to be free. It is the battle for the right to be free. It is the battle for the right to be free. It is the battle for the right to be free. It is the battle for the right to be free. It is the battle for the right to be free. It is the battle for the right to be free. It is the battle for the right to be free. It is the battle for the right to be free. It is the battle for the right to be free. It is the battle for the right to be free.
Debs Goes to Prison

BY DAVID KANNER

It is said that she had no time for the book, and the law was only a convenient means of getting to the bottom of the thing. It was not so with me. I had time to see the world as I went along, and I used it to my advantage. I was never a man to be bought with a bribe. I had a heart in the right place, and a soul to match it. I was not afraid of the law, for I knew that I was doing right.

The House of Representatives

Mr. Waite, what we are trying to do is to withdraw your motion to vote on the bill in the Senate. We have never had a chance to vote on the bill in the Senate, and we are not going to do it now. We are going to vote on the bill in the House. We want to vote on the bill in the House.

Mr. Waite, we have made no provision in the bill for the purpose of making any changes in it. We are going to vote on the bill as it stands.

The Three Fears.

There are three great fears that dog the worker's waking life. From the Squire he inherits the habit of saying the rights in his yard to his birds, and the birds to his yard. From the gentleman he has the great fear of the ladies. From the ladies he has the great fear of the ladies, the doctor, the tailor, and the hairdresser. They are:

1. The fear of the lot.
2. The fear of the lot.
3. The fear of the lot.

These three fears are more real than the others in that they are not as easily understood or explained. They are not as easily understood or explained. They are not as easily understood or explained.

It is the fear of the lot. The fear of the lot. The fear of the lot.

Local Socialists meet on Tuesday, March 12th, at 30th Street and 9th Avenue. All members and friends are invited to attend.

THE TRUTH ABOUT SOVIET RUSSIA.

The Soviet System and Old-Style Democracy

Everywhere in Russia today the organs of the government, the Communist Party and the local soviets of workers, peasants and soldiers, are visible and active. They are active and visible, in large part, because they demand the attention of the people and because they are supported by the people. The people of Russia are not blind to the injustices and miseries of the old system. They are aware of the corruption and exploitation of the old regime, and they have come to recognize the need for a new system that is based on the principles of democracy and human rights.

The new system has brought about a marked change in the lives of the people. They now have the right to vote, to participate in the making of laws, and to elect their leaders. They have the right to education, healthcare, and social security. They have the right to freedom of speech, religion, and assembly. They have the right to a fair trial and to protection from arbitrary arrest and imprisonment.

The new system has also brought about a marked change in the economy. The state has taken over the means of production, and the people have been given the right to work and to receive a fair wage. The state has provided for the education and training of workers, and it has set up a system of social security to protect the workers in times of illness, old age, and unemployment.

The new system has also brought about a marked change in the society. The old system was characterized by corruption, exploitation, and inequality. The new system is based on the principles of democracy and human rights, and it is characterized by equality, justice, and freedom.

The new system has also brought about a marked change in the international relations of Russia. The old system was characterized by isolation and aggression. The new system is based on the principles of cooperation and peace, and it is characterized by cooperation and peaceful resolution of disputes.

The new system has also brought about a marked change in the culture of Russia. The old system was characterized by censorship and repression. The new system is based on the principles of freedom of speech and expression, and it is characterized by free and open discussion of all issues.

The new system has also brought about a marked change in the arts of Russia. The old system was characterized by censorship and repression. The new system is based on the principles of freedom of expression, and it is characterized by a vibrant and diverse arts scene.
