

A TRUE STORY.

The secretaries make a mistake when they say it as "occasional jassack" strays into the representative halls. The Rebel at in the gallery of the House of Representatives last week and counted 128. They also failed to state that these 128 were sent there for some $50,000 jassack; not announced in the foregoing interesting statistics.

We are glad to be able to look back upon the year that has just passed. It has been a year of many things, and we are sure that it will be remembered as a year of progress and achievement. We have seen many great things done, and we are sure that the future will be even brighter.

In these days of light when the men of the people are thinking of the future, we are sure that they will be able to see the way forward. We are sure that they will be able to see the way forward, and we are sure that they will be able to see the way forward.

On the 11th of last month a mob of people died. It was a tragedy, and it was a tragedy that we should have to see. It was a tragedy that we should have to see, and it was a tragedy that we should have to see.

Go to church for enlightenment. It is a good thing to go to church, and it is a good thing to go to church. It is a good thing to go to church, and it is a good thing to go to church.

The initiative and referendum are a good thing, and they are a good thing. They are a good thing, and they are a good thing. They are a good thing, and they are a good thing.

The Decaturville will present a five dollar gold piece to the first person who sends in the principal, and it is a good thing to do so. It is a good thing to do so, and it is a good thing to do so.
