BIG ANTI-SOVIET PLOT REVEALED

International Chamber of Commerce Plans General Anti-Soviet Action

The International Chamber of Commerce has become the target of a major anti-Soviet campaign in the United States. The chamber, which claims to represent the interests of American business and industry, has been accused of promoting policies that are inimical to the United States and its allies.

The anti-Soviet campaign has been led by a group of conservative politicians and business leaders who have accused the chamber of being too lenient on the Soviet Union. The group has called for the chamber to be disavowed and for its leaders to be held accountable for their actions.

The chamber has issued a series of statements denying the allegations and has defended its policies. However, the anti-Soviet campaign continues to gain momentum, and it is likely that the chamber will face increased scrutiny in the coming months.

U.S. Government Sends Two Workers to Certain Death

Washington, DC - The U.S. government has announced that it will send two workers to certain death. The workers were seized by a foreign regime in a country where they had been working on a U.S. embassy project.

The workers, identified as John Smith and Jane Doe, were caught up in a political uprising that led to the overthrow of the government. The new regime has imposed strict conditions on the workers, including death sentences.

The U.S. government has been trying to negotiate their release for several months, but the new regime has refused to budge. The workers' families have been left in a state of despair, wondering if they will ever see their loved ones again.

ALDEN STRIKE IS CALLED OFF

Gettysville, PA - The strike by Gettysville Steel Workers has been called off. The workers had been on strike for several weeks, demanding better wages and working conditions.

The company agreed to make the wage demands and to provide better safety measures. The workers have been satisfied with the agreement and have returned to work.

UNITED FRONT IN N.Y. ON MAY DAY

New York - A United Front for May Day has been formed in New York. The front includes workers, students, and activists from a variety of groups.

The front has called for a day of unity and action to demand better wages, working conditions, and social justice. The day will be marked by rallies, marches, and other events.

HOOPER DEFENDS HIS AIDS REFUSAL POLICY

Dr. James Hooper, who has refused to treat AIDS patients, has defended his policy. Hooper argues that treating AIDS patients is unethical and that they should be isolated.

The debate over AIDS treatment has been hotly contested, with some arguing that patients should be treated and others insisting that they should be isolated. Hooper's stance has been met with criticism from both sides.

WAGE CUTS SWEEP THE COUNTRY: BANKS LEAD IN ATTACKS

Washington, DC - Wage cuts are sweeping the country, with banks leading the way. The cuts are being imposed in response to the economic downturn and are affecting workers across a variety of industries.

Bank workers have been hit especially hard, with many facing layoffs and lower salaries. The cuts are also affecting workers in other industries, such as manufacturing and retail.

WAGE DOWNS 15%, LIVING COSTS 12%: WORKERS HARDER HIT; WORKERS MUST HIT BACK

New York - The recent wage cuts have been accompanied by increased living costs, with workers facing a double whammy. Workers have been forced to make tough choices, as they try to make ends meet in a tough economic climate.

The workers have been meeting in a variety of locations to discuss their options and to plan a coordinated response. They are considering a variety of strategies, including strikes and other forms of protest.

BRADDOCK MIXED IN BANK SCANDAL

New York - A bank scandal has been exposed, with former executives accused of fraud and embezzlement. The scandal has caused outrage among the public and has raised questions about the regulation of the financial industry.

The scandal has also raised questions about the role of banks in the economy. Some have called for greater regulation, while others have argued that the banks are essential to the economy and should be protected.

News from Everywhere

The latest news from around the world, brought to you by the workers. If you have news to share, please let us know.

Workers need your help! If you know of any workers who need our support, please let us know.

Workers must fight back! The struggle is ongoing, and we must stay united to win.

Workers, stand together! We are stronger when we work together.

Workers, take action! The time to act is now.

Workers, resist! The bosses are coming after us, and we must stand our ground.

Workers, organize! The power is in our hands.

Workers, fight for our rights! We deserve better.

Workers, never give up! The fight is not over.

Workers, join us! We need your support.

Workers, rise up! The time to act is now.
GITLOW SPEAKS AT BROOKWOOD

Dissent Unemployment And Labor Program

On Monday, Oct. 19, Mr. Gitlow lectured before the social studies class at the Brooklyn College. His lecture focused on the importance of dissent in American society and the implications of labor and unemployment. Gitlow acknowledged the difficulties faced by workers and the need for collective action. He emphasized the role of the Communist Party in advocating for workers' rights and challenging the status quo. The lecture was well-received by the students, who engaged in an active discussion on the topics presented. The event was held at the college, and the audience was comprised of students, faculty, and community members. The lecture concluded with a Q&A session, during which Gitlow addressed the concerns and questions raised by the audience. The session was recorded and will be made available to the public in the near future.

In The Communist Party

Another 'United Front' Conference

by M. K. Naught

The Philadelphia Daily News held a conference on the theme of the 'United Front' in the Communist Party. The event was attended by representatives from various organizations and activists. The conference aimed to discuss the role of the Communist Party in promoting unity among workers and the need for a 'United Front' approach in addressing political and social issues. M. K. Naught, a prominent figure within the party, delivered a keynote address, highlighting the importance of solidarity and unity. The conference concluded with a panel discussion, where participants shared their perspectives on the current political climate and the need for collective action.

LOVSTONE SPEAKS IN BALTIMORE

Report: At Western's Educational Club and College Meet

Lovestone, a prominent figure within the Communist Party, addressed the Western's Educational Club and College Meet, bringing attention to the party's initiatives and objectives. At the event, Lovestone emphasized the need for unity and cooperation among students and intellectuals. He highlighted the party's ongoing efforts to promote education and cultural development. The meeting concluded with a discussion on the significance of the party's role in shaping the future of society.

JUST OUT

INTERNATIONAL INFORMATION

COMMUNIST OPPosition

New York Edition

May 23

The International Information Committee of the Communist Party released a statement, emphasizing the party's commitment to international solidarity and the need for a coordinated approach to address global challenges. The statement called for increased cooperation among communist parties worldwide and highlighted the party's role in promoting peace and justice. The event was attended by representatives from various communist organizations, who exchanged views on the current political landscape and the need for a united front.
The Economic Week

What are one and two words are now recognized as the basis for economic cycles? And how does one cycle differ from the other? The Economic Week explains these concepts, focusing on the nature of economic cycles and how they affect modern economies. It delves into the factors that drive these cycles, from monetary policy to technological innovation, and explores the role of government in managing them. The article also discusses the impact of global trends, such as demographic changes and climate change, on economic cycles. The Economic Week provides a comprehensive overview of the subject, offering insights and analysis for readers interested in understanding the complex dynamics of economic cycles in the modern world.

The Significance of the Irish Revolt

by N. Lenin

The Irish Revolt was a significant event in the history of Ireland, marked by the emergence of national consciousness and the struggle for independence. The article explores the causes and effects of the revolt, examining the role of leadership, the impact of international relations, and the broader implications of the movement for the development of Irish society. It also discusses the influence of the Irish Revolt on subsequent events, including the formation of the Irish Free State and the eventual partition of Ireland. The Significance of the Irish Revolt provides a detailed account of this pivotal period in Irish history, offering valuable insights for students and scholars interested in understanding the complexities of this important event.

The Revolutionary Movement in India

A Declaration to the Congress Rank and File

We publish here a letter by a prominent communist leader, addressed to the rank and file of the Indian National Congress. The letter contains a call to action, urging members to join the movement for Indian independence and to fight for a socialist future. It emphasizes the need for unity among communist and revolutionary forces, and for a clear understanding of the role of the working class in the struggle for liberation. The letter concludes with a call to organize and mobilize, stating that only through mass action can the goals of the revolutionary movement be achieved. The Declaration to the Congress Rank and File provides a powerful statement of solidarity and commitment to the cause of Indian independence.

The Rationalization and the Worker

by Hai Long

The article explores the role of rationalization in the workplace, examining the impact of technological changes and organizational reforms on worker productivity and well-being. It discusses the implications of rationalization for worker autonomy and the need for a critical perspective on its effects on labor. The Rationalization and the Worker offers insights into the intersection of technology, management, and labor, providing a nuanced analysis of the challenges and opportunities presented by rationalization in the modern workplace.

The Ceylonese National Movement

The wave of nationalist agitation in Ceylon has been gaining momentum in recent years, with demands for greater autonomy and self-government. The article provides a detailed account of this movement, examining the role of leadership, the impact of international relations, and the broader implications of the movement for the development of Ceylonese society. It also discusses the influence of the Ceylonese National Movement on subsequent events, including the eventual granting of independence to Ceylon. The Ceylonese National Movement provides a comprehensive overview of this important period in Ceylonese history, offering valuable insights for students and scholars interested in understanding the complexities of this significant event.

The League in the Struggle of Labor

The League for the Struggle of Labor is a key organization in the fight for workers' rights and social justice. The article examines the history and activities of the League, highlighting its role in advancing the interests of labor and advocating for a more equitable society. It discusses the challenges faced by the League in its struggle, as well as the contributions it has made to the movement for workers' rights. The League in the Struggle of Labor offers a valuable perspective on the history of labor activism and the ongoing struggle for social justice.

The Communist Alliance

The Communist Alliance is a political organization dedicated to the advancement of communist ideals and the fight for a socialist society. The article provides a detailed account of this organization, examining its role in the struggle for communism and the broader implications of its activism for the development of communist movements. It also discusses the impact of the Communist Alliance on subsequent events, including the formation of communist parties and the eventual establishment of communist regimes. The Communist Alliance offers a comprehensive overview of this significant period in communist history, providing valuable insights for students and scholars interested in understanding the complexities of this important event.
The Next War

What’s to Be Done?

Peace Pacs - Pacifism - Religion - Refusal to Serve - To Fight War We Must Fight Capitalism - The Race with Death - For a Warless World

by Bertram D. Wolfe

The question has been raised by the recent events in Europe that we are fighting the same war today as we did 100 years ago. How can we solve this problem? The answer is clear: we must fight against capitalism.

Peace Pacs

First, we must fight for peace. This means defending our country against imperialist aggressors. In this context, we must support the peace forces in the United States and throughout the world. Peace forces are campaigning against the war and for the establishment of a just, democratic society.

Pacifism

Second, we must fight for pacifism. This means opposing all forms of violence and resorting to peaceful means to resolve conflicts. Pacifism is a powerful weapon in the struggle against war. It is a moral and ethical stance that enables us to resist the temptation to use violence.

Religion

Third, we must fight for religion. Religion is a powerful force for peace and unity. It unites people of different backgrounds and traditions, providing a moral compass that guides us in our struggle for justice.

Refusal to Serve

Fourth, we must fight for the refusal to serve. This means refusing to join the military and instead committing ourselves to peaceful alternatives. The refusal to serve is a moral and ethical stance that enables us to resist the temptation to use violence.

To Fight War We Must Fight Capitalism

Fifth, we must fight capitalism. Capitalism is the root cause of war and imperialism. It is a system that benefits a few at the expense of the many, creating a sense of competition and conflict. By fighting capitalism, we can create a society in which everyone has a place.

The Race with Death

Sixth, we must fight the race with death. This means fighting against the destruction and loss of life caused by war. We must fight for a world in which everyone can live in peace and harmony.

For a Warless World

Seventh, we must fight for a warless world. This means fighting for a world in which war and violence are no longer tolerated. We must work towards a world in which everyone can live in peace and harmony.

PASSAC MAJORITY IN SOUTH AFRICA

Pacifists Generalize Participation in - Election Week Campaign

Two Years Of New Life In The South

BY RAYMOND R. W. HOWELL

In the United States, the Civil Rights Movement has made significant progress in the past two years. This progress is a result of the efforts of pacifists, who have been working towards a warless world.

CAMP SOLIDARITY

RAMSEY, N. J. Foot of Ramapo Hills

A camp for and by workers

LAKE FOR BATHING AND ROWING

Modern improvements in equipment, excelled in by the excellent food.

WILL OF THE WORKERS

DECORATION DAY WEEK

Information: 25 East 27th St., New York City

THANKS TO JOHN, H. B. COOPER, ARMS WORKER

F IR A P R I L 2 4 t h , 1 9 3 1

11:30 A. M.

A T L A B O R T E A M L E

242 East 14th Street - New York City

Anspricht: COMMUNIST PARTY (Majority Group)