TEACHERS RESIST CHURCH TRAINING

Union Passes Resolution; Officials Ask for Same

NEW YORK CITY—The teachers Union and the American Federation for Educational Reform have gotten their way with the Board of Education in New York City. The Board voted a resolution which will force the church to come to terms with the teachers over the many violations of the teachers' rights.

A 7-1 vote of the Board means that the board is in agreement with the Union over the many violations of the teachers' rights.

The teachers Union has been fighting for many years to get the church out of the schools. The Board's decision is a significant step in that direction.

VERA CRUZ FIXES CURB ON PRIESTS

Legislature Puts Quota on Number; Clergy To Resign Law

NEW YORK—The decision of the Governor to fix the number of priests on the staff of the schools has been met with approval by the Catholic Church. The Governor's action has been hailed as a step forward in the fight against the teaching of the Church in the schools.

The Governor said that the number of priests should be limited to a certain number, which he believes is the maximum number that can be accommodated in the schools. The Governor has also ordered the clerical staff to resign law.

KRESEL INDICTED FOR PERJURY

Groves Ouster of Bank of U.S. Financial Scandal

MADISON, Wis—(The Associated Press)—Kresel, former assistant manager of the Bank of U.S., has been charged with perjury for falsifying the records of the bank in order to conceal the company's financial condition.

Kresel is accused of falsifying the records of the bank in order to conceal the company's financial condition. The bank has suffered a financial loss of $1,500,000 as a result of Kresel's actions.

CORTES ELECTION ON JUNE 28

Four Big Blows on Ruling Community, Died to Naval Squadrons

STEAMBOAT RIVER, Conn—(Rutgers Press)—Cortes, the Ruling Community, fought an election battle with the Naval Squadrons on June 28.

The result was a decisive victory for the Ruling Community, which was supported by a strong band of sympathizers. The Naval Squadrons were defeated by a large margin.

DELOTTE TRAIL TO NEGRO BOYS

Judge Hawkins Rejects Plea of Selloschools Victims

JDL, Pittsburg Case

The case of the Selloschools victims has been rejected by Judge Hawkins. The victims have been offered a settlement of $50,000, but they have refused to accept it.

2 Killed, Many Wounded As Coal & Iron Police Attack Miners

Ohio Miners Denounce Solidarity by March to Penn. Coal Fields; Troopers Ransack Wilkes Barre to Strike Areas; "Deportation" Steer Steps In

The miners have marched to Penn. Coal Fields to protest against the police attack on the miners. The police have ransacked Wilkes Barre to strike areas.

BELIEVE IT OR NOT!

Socialist Party Members in Sharp Protest Against Hillquist's Anti-Soviet Activities

Circle No. 1, Y.P. S. L., Trotz, Unanimously Condemns S. P. Leader; Indignation Grows As Extent of Hillquist Scandal Becomes Known

The Socialist Party members have unanimously condemned S. P. leader, Cal Guard. The extent of the scandal is now becoming known.

DEMAND DUSTING OF BRODERICK

W. K. Mary Johns Officially Receives Rejection With Bond of U. S.

The demand for dusting of Broderick has been made by the Socialist Party. The bond of the U. S. has been rejected.

Hillmanism in Amalgamated

by Ben Gillow

Racketeering and Sell-Out Agreements

The Amalgamated Clothing Workers of New York, the largest organization of the retail clothing industry in the United States, has been charged with racketeering and selling out agreements.

The charges have been brought by the New York Labor Board, which has found that the Amalgamated Clothing Workers of New York has conspired with the clothing manufacturers to fix wages and hours of labor.

The court has found that the Amalgamated Clothing Workers of New York has conspired with the clothing manufacturers to fix wages and hours of labor. The evidence shows that the Amalgamated Clothing Workers of New York has conspired with the clothing manufacturers to fix wages and hours of labor.

Picnic and Dance, Saturday, July 25, Clinton Park, Maspeth, L. I.
Left Wing Struggle Develops In The Anthropology

by Frank Ventracie

Summary of the Left Wing Struggle

The Left Wing Struggle is a term used to describe the conflict between different political factions within a specific organization or group. It often involves debates over goals, strategies, and leadership within the group. The Left Wing, in this context, refers to the more radical or ideological faction within the organization.

In the Communist Party

Lithuanian Opposition Organized

Some months ago the Central Committee of the Lithuanian Communist Party announced the formation of a Lithuanian Opposition Organization within the party. The formation of this organization follows the expulsion of Lithuanian leaders from the Lithuanian Communist Party. The new organization is expected to mobilize Lithuanian workers against the current political situation and to provide a platform for discussion on Lithuanian issues.

For Communist Unity

Statement of a Party Member

The party member's statement reflects the position of the Communist Party on the current political situation. The statement highlights the need for united action among all Communist Party members to overcome the current challenges.

BANQUET-RECEPTION-DANCE

to welcome THE DELEGATES TO THE JULY PLENUM OF THE COMMUNIST PARTY (MAJORITY GROUP)

at 63 Madison Avenue — New York City
FRIDAY EVENING. JULY 8, P. M. Sharp

ADMISSION 50 CENTS

Amusement: Noodle Tandy Serenades Communist Party (Majority Group)

SOVIET-GERMAN PACT IS RENEWED

(Washington Post) — The Soviet and German governments have agreed to renew their 25-year non-aggression pact. The pact, which was signed in 1939, is considered a cornerstone of European security. Russia and Germany have been close allies in the past, and the renewal of the pact is seen as a positive development.

For Communist Unity

Statement of a Party Member

What I joined the Communist Party for...
Racketeering and Sell-Out Agreements

HILLMANISM IN AMALGAMATED

by Ben Gillow

(Continued from page 11)

The purpose of the article was to expose the racketeering and sell-out activities that were rampant in the Amalgamated Alliance at the time. The article highlighted the involvement of certain individuals and organizations in these activities, and called for an end to such practices. The author, Ben Gillow, was a prominent figure in the labor movement and a strong advocate for workers' rights.

HORNER ON WAY TO EXPULSION

The Berlin Daily Worker, of Germany, has appeared under a new editor, K. Horner, who was expelled from the Norwegian Workers' Party in 1928 and from the German Social Democratic Party in 1930. Horner was also a former member of the Communist Party and is known for his radical views.

MARRIAGE AND THE CRISIS

The current political situation in Germany is described as revolutionary and unstable. The author, K. Horner, expresses his thoughts on the role of women in this crisis and the implications for the future.

THE CARPENTERS ELECTION IN LOS ANGELES

TWO POLICIES IN TRADE UNION WORK

by A. Schrap

The election of the Carpenters' Union in Los Angeles provides an example of the different policies that can be pursued in trade union work. The author discusses the successes and failures of these policies and offers suggestions for improvement.

The Economic Week

Despite some improvement in the speculative market, due to the rise in the price of copper, the gains have been eroded by the visible signs of a new depression. The price decline has stopped and even reversed in recent months. This suggests that the trend is now upward.

The Marxian Theory of Crises

by Eugene Varga

The Marxian theory of crises is explained in detail, focusing on the role of capital accumulation and the cyclical nature of the economy. The author argues that crises are an inherent part of the capitalist system and cannot be avoided.

The Economic Crisis and World Politics

by A. P.

The current economic crisis is examined in the context of world politics. The author discusses the implications of the crisis for international relations and the potential for conflict.

The General Crisis of Capitalism

by A. P.

The general crisis of capitalism is discussed, focusing on the underlying causes and potential solutions. The author argues that capitalism is inherently unstable and that its collapse is inevitable.
The American Revolution and the Workers
Our Heritage from 1776

by Bertram D. Wolfe

"The best representation of the American proletariat,"..."our role in the history of the American...of the first truly national...of the period of the Revolutionary War...'

A Marxist view

All the available evidence, which...under the circumstances...'

Revolution and War

...has a revolutionary...have a revolutionary...'

Marxism and the Crisis of Capitalism

THE MARXIAN THEORY OF CRISIS

by Eugene Varga

"Continued from Page 9

The inaugural season of the Workers"..."the first issue of the magazine..."