The Counsel of Abject Servility

by Will Herberg

The Stage and Screen

"THREE TO LEAVE," A Screen Play

Schneck "explodes the world..." with the story of the "Two Leavings." In the play, "The Two Leavings," Schneck explores the complex relationship between two men who are forced to leave their society due to their differing views on life and society. The play is a powerful commentary on the human condition and the struggle for personal identity in a world of conformity and repression.

Philosophy and the Proletariat

The Struggle Over Hegel

by August Thaeler (Berlin)

In the struggle over Hegel, the Council of Abject Servility presents a powerful commentary on the conflict between the ideas of Hegel and the concrete reality of life. The Council argues that Hegel's philosophy is a tool of the capitalist class, used to maintain their power and control over the masses. The struggle over Hegel is not just a battle of ideas, but a struggle for the very soul of society. The Council encourages its members to join the fight against the forces of reaction and to support the cause of the proletariat.

LITERATURE AND MUSIC IN U.S.S.R.

Interviews With Soviet Cultural Leaders

In the last few weeks, we have had the pleasure of interviewing some of the leading cultural figures of the U.S.S.R. These interviews have provided us with a unique opportunity to gain insight into the rich and diverse culture of this great nation. We are grateful to our interviewees for their time and their willingness to share their insights with us. We hope that our readers will find these interviews as illuminating as we have. We look forward to continuing our exploration of the culture of the U.S.S.R. in the future.

For Trade Union Unity And Military

AFTER PATERSON STRIKE—WHAT?

by Jack Brown

The German government, in a move that has been widely condemned, has recently cracked down on trade union activity. The government has seized union assets, arrested union leaders, and banned union meetings. This is a clear violation of the democratic rights of unions and their members. The Council of Abject Servility stands in solidarity with the trade unions and their supporters, and calls for the immediate release of all banned union leaders and the reinstatement of all seized union assets.
