Shall They Put it Over?

HERE is a conspiracy in action against the peace and happiness of the world, against the peace and happiness of the workers. This conspiracy is waged, in international Capitalism and Imperialism; and the governments they control. These governments are not conscious of the fact, generally, and on the contrary, events today are shaping the destiny of the world to be more and more to the advantage of the workers. The war, for instance, which now rages in Europe, is not a war of nations, as the governments pretend, but a war of the workers against the women and children of the world. It has come out of the war.

Soldiers who are demobilized can't get jobs. Or they get jobs they meet with the abominable conditions of old. Capitalism has secured enormous profits, but the workers must meet the old conditions and the old struggles. The working class has secured nothing out of the war except death and blood, while our Capitalism has secured virtual world power.

That is the new world! Capitalism, out of the war, is scavenging new life and new power. It is organizing itself to maintain the exploitation and oppression of the workers. It is trying to continue its domination of the world, to make reaction and oppression supreme. To this end, it forms a cowed League of Nations which it intends to use to maintain the power of the strongest imperialist nations. This League is based upon Capitalism, to promote the profits and supremacy of Capitalism. Under its shield, colonial peoples are being subjected to new slavery and oppression; under its shield, the world is being territorially and financially divided among the great powers—England, France, Italy, Japan, and the United States. The Imperialism of these nations is ascendant. The slavery of colonial peoples is necessary to them, and this slavery is made more intense.

This is a threat to the peace and liberty of the world, a direct threat to our own workers' peace and liberty. The workers can't do anything by themselves. They can do nothing. The war is a direct threat to our own workers' peace and liberty.

The working class bas secured nothing out of the war. The working class bas secured nothing out of the war. It has come out of the war. The workers possess the power. They can do anything they want. They can impose the new world. They can impose Capitalism to maintain its power, come what may; they can impose a new world for workers; control of industry, for a new world. And they can do this because the workers have the power to do it.

The return from the war.

THE RETURN FROM THE WAR

Soldiers who are demobilized can't get jobs. Or they get jobs they meet with the abominable conditions of old. Capitalism has secured enormous profits, but the workers must meet the old conditions and the old struggles. The working class has secured nothing out of the war except death and blood, while our Capitalism has secured virtual world power.

That is the new world! Capitalism, out of the war, is scavenging new life and new power. It is organizing itself to maintain the exploitation and oppression of the workers. It is trying to continue its domination of the world, to make reaction and oppression supreme. To this end, it forms a cowed League of Nations which it intends to use to maintain the power of the strongest imperialist nations. This League is based upon Capitalism, to promote the profits and supremacy of Capitalism. Under its shield, colonial peoples are being subjected to new slavery and oppression; under its shield, the world is being territorially and financially divided among the great powers—England, France, Italy, Japan, and the United States. The Imperialism of these nations is ascendant. The slavery of colonial peoples is necessary to them, and this slavery is made more intense.

This is a threat to the peace and liberty of the world, a direct threat to our own workers' peace and liberty. The workers can't do anything by themselves. They can do nothing. The war is a direct threat to our own workers' peace and liberty.

The working class bas secured nothing out of the war. The working class bas secured nothing out of the war. It has come out of the war. The workers possess the power. They can do anything they want. They can impose the new world. They can impose Capitalism to maintain its power, come what may; they can impose a new world for workers; control of industry, for a new world. And they can do this because the workers have the power to do it.
The Revolutionary Age
A Chronicle of the Interpretation of International Events

Louisa C. Frazier
Editor

Contribution Editors
John Reed
Selka Katayama
I. H. Hochwitz
E. P. Fugros
Ludwig Lore
Edmond M.A.Helpe

ISSUED EVERY SATURDAY
By Local Boston, Socialist Party
H. G. Steiner, Business Manager
885 Washington St., Boston, Mass.

Subscription $1.00 for six months (26 issues)
Svcilng orders by a copy

The Militant Strike

There is a revolutionary movement of the proletariat developing in many countries resulting in a consciousness of class and the necessity of militant action. The demobilized soldiers are not accepted into the Army, and there is a press open it would have adopted the same position by striking. The American bourgeoisie press is indignant at this action. But facts and facts are the class struggle of the proletariat. The Allies refuse to let the workers into the Army. They have been trying to realize the movement of the workers. But whatever is the case, the workers refuse to raise the blockade, which is one of the most inhuman acts in history.

In addition to waging war against Soviet Russia by means of the most cruel blockade of recent history, the Allies are waging military war against the Soviet-British war ships are in the Gulf of Finland. While the press reports that American troops were to be taken out of Russia, new reports are that Russian troops have been sent to Archangel. It is war, deliberate and unspeakable. It is murder of the women and children of Russia. It is a capitalization of one of the vilest manifested labor—speak!

Partial Disarmament

The army of Germany is to be limited to 100,000 men, and German colonies are to be limited to those of the Pacific.

Regulations imposed which will prevent Germany doing a manufacturing business. Prussia did not want to build a large army surreptitiously. There are bourgeois liberals—yes, there are—'who' guide this as a great victory for disarmament. But the Allies are not disarming. On the contrary, they are all preparing to defend more than ever a large army, and a large navy. This is the position of the workers—V for victory, and the workers are not disarming. As the contrary, they are all preparing to defend more than ever a large army, and a large navy. This is to be concluded between France, Great Britain, and the United States. Germany is not only limited to an army of 900,000 men and its all-powerful navy. Universal military service seems about to be "put over" in the United States. The terms of peace, instead of bringing universal peace and disarmament, are bringing new threats of war and new armaments. The international assembly is a test of the war. It is a means to realize industrial democracy, but a means to realize political democracy.

What International?

The first Congress of the Communist International, which convened at Moscow March 2-6, upon the initiative of the Communist Party of Russia (Bolsheviki) adopted a Manifesto and Program which is the new charter of international revolutionary Socialism. The Program is in accord with the facts of contemporary evolution in public opinion and the spirit of the present situation. It calls upon all the socialist and the Socialism of the world to organize in accordance with its fundamental proposals, to engage or prepare conscious and aggressively for the final revolutionary struggle against Capitalism.

The test of the revolutionary spirit of a Socialist Party will be acceptance or rejection of this Communist International. Will the American Socialist Party, in accordance with the Congress of the Great Betrayal at Berlin, accept the Communist International? The membership has the opportunity to decide by means of the following referendum:

To the Socialist Party, shall participate only in those organizations and actions called by us, in which participate the Communist Party of Russia (Bolsheviki) and the Communist Labor Party of Germany (Spartacists).

This motion is clearly an acceptance of the Communist International. The congress of the USSR is a form of civil war: and in civil war, the Allies refuse to let the workers into the Army. They have been trying to realize the movement of the workers. But whatever is the case, the workers refuse to raise the blockade, which is one of the most inhuman acts in history.

Starving Russia

The Soviet Government of Russia has rejected the plan of Dr. Nansen, proposed by the imperialist, Peace Conference in Paris, for "feeding" the Russian people. The capitalist press, corrupt to the bone, is attempting to create this as proof of the infamous policy of the Bolsheviks. This is a piece of camouflage and incompetence. The British Government, nor any thing else, has this yearning in your heart, that it yearns for a larger life; and become conscious in words, while preparing to betray it in deeds. The President is making this war-time for a larger life the means of oppressing and subjugating labor.

We do not know whether the President will propose the "democratization of industry," or "Industrial Councils" and "Industrial Parliaments." The British Government is trying to "realize the 'community of interest' between labor and capital," to "democratize industry." But the President does not even propose the "democratization of industry," but anything definite. Britain's schemes are always vague and undetermined. The workers sense that all these plans are simply maintaining the interests of the owners. The workers are the capitalists, of baffling the action of the workers. Minor labor is in revolt against the plans of the President.

The vital issue, the most pressing problem of the day, is the democratization of industry. Industrial democracy along with the Socialism of the world, happiness and property to the world, end war and realize universal peace. But industrial democracy, in its very nature, implies the end of private ownership of the means of production. "industrial workers' control of industry." But the "democratization of industry" proposed by the President proceeds upon the basis of private ownership, of the means of production, by the owners and the capitalists. Until the revolutionary proletariat breaks the power of the capitalists, industrial democracy is impossible.

We do not know whether the President will propose any specific plans for realizing his "democratization of industry." His argument is that it is not a means to realize industrial democracy, but a means of baffling the action of the workers. But whatever plans are proposed, they will not satisfy labor. "Industrial Councils" or "Shop Councils" which bring together foremen and workers improve the conditions of the workers, and do not realize labor's purposes. They have been defeated already in Russia. The women who labor is brutally oppressed—and proven of the brute. The employer can interpose his veto, the veto of his unlighted hand. This ownership must be broken.

Industrial democracy is the great issue. And this democracy is realizable only through control of industry, established after the power of the capitalists is broken. No such plan, however, or any plan, ever suggested by industrial organizations of the proletariat, exercising their functions through the industrial vote and cents. It is based upon the American government and the industrial democracy. And that means the conscious, definite struggle for communist Socialism.

Manifesto Edition

Anticipating the good news for our issue No. 23, containing the acclaimed "Left Wing Manifesto," we printed several thousand additional copies which are available at a cents per copy while the supply lasts.

885 Washington St., Boston, Mass.
Split the Party!

The situation in the Socialist Party of Local New York has become a real scandal, a menace to the entire movement. The Left Wing, in its struggle against the Right, has been accomplishing its sinister purpose. They are accomplishing this purpose by means of intrigue, by issuing promises and compromises, and by using the tactics of gangsters.

The situation in Local New York is no longer a local issue, but national in scope. These are the facts:

It is an issue which affects the whole future of the American Socialist Party. It is an issue which affects the American Socialist Party in the world. The Left Wing is the only real ally of the Russian Soviet In the world of toil.

This is the issue which emerges stark and clear in the situation prevailing in Local New York.

It is an issue which is being fought within the party, and which cannot be dodged, but which requires the militant action of the membership of the whole party.

There are two points: 1. local or group should protest against the expulsions in New York City. Should protest against the expulsion of the Left Wing. The Left Wing is the enemy of the proletariat and the revolution.

Branches of the Party must not be expelled until membership speaks, every member of the party must have the right to affect decisions. Votes must not be stolen from revolutionary candidates in order to assure the supremacy of the moderates who are directing the party straight to disaster.

The slogan of the Left Wing is: Split the party for moderate Socialism! The slogan of the Left Wing is: Conquer the party for revolutionary Socialism—for the Communist International!

Call for a National Conference of the Left Wing

Call for a National Conference of the Left Wing of the American Socialist Party, Issued by Local Bureau, (Louis C. Fraga, Secretary), Local Cleveland, (C. E. Johnson, Secretary), Local New York, Section of the Socialist Party of Local New York City.

The international situation and the crisis in the American Socialist Party; the sabotage the party by the American Communist party, the American Socialist Party convention; the N. E. C. aligning our party with the social-patriots and bourgeois socialism of the American Socialist Party, their forces in the party, and action thereon; the Left Wing, for propaganda, securing of new Congress, etc.

The Peace Conference refuses to come to terms with the Left Wing, for open diplomacy is a means of intrigue, to bring in all sorts of irrelevant issues, the confusion, the disclaimers, the list of nonsense of the Left Wing.

Levinson in Winnipeg, "Levinson in Winnipeg," say the press reports. Levinson, apparently, is omniscient and omnipotent. Is Levinson or prophet socialists consciousness of class? Is Levinson or proletarian consciousness of class the same thing?

The Master is in Paris, but the "Master's voice" is still being heard by the Congress.

Former President Taft urges the "square deal" as being impossible to the American Congress, "not in this world.

The sign of Capitalism is not the deal, but the double-cross. The Peace Conference refuses to publish the full text of the peace treaty. Is it, then, still more terrible than the summary?

All this talk condemning the Peace Conference for sabotaging "open diplomacy" is unjust. The delegates at the Conference are gentlemen; when do gentlemen wash their dirty linen in public?

The new Congress already has more than 1200 bills to consider. The overwhelming majority of these concern property rights. They speak of democracy, but what time has the worker to consider all this legislation? The work, the factories, the noise, the struggle of democracy—is the noise that strangles democracy—and the worker.

Mr. Hansen, the bumptious-demi-god of Seattle, is still inciting to murder and riot against the I. W. W.'s, Bolsheviks, and Socialists.

And radicals are still being imprisoned on fraudulent charges of doing the things that "Olie" Hansen has been accusing them of doing; the作风建设 mass action; the action of the workers, the workers, the workers.

The gangster tactics of Ebert, Scheidemann, and Co. are being used in our own country, in New York. But the New York "Socialist" gangsters are different. They can't use machine guns against our revolutionary congress.

Do the moderates still believe that you can't crush an ideal by force?

The Left is right!
THE REVOLUTIONARY AGE

Saturday, May 24.

The Mass Strike in Action

By N. Mescheriakov

From the Moscow "Pravda"

Revolution. In his memorandum, Newbold, who as an agitator has traversed England from one end to the other, is thoroughly acquainted with the English labor movement, characterizes the I. L. P.: "Their rank and file, insofar as they understand our movement, approve of it; they are proud of the name Bolshevik and without hesitation will follow your example at the proper movement."

Unfortunately, all these Socialist parties are numerically very small, 150,000 members, the Independent Labor Party, 10,000 members, and the Independent Labor Party, 25,000. The majority of the English workers are not affiliated with the Socialist parties, but are in the trade unions which form the so-called Labor P; semi-socialist in its program and extremely meek in its tactics. In that respect the English worker is no different from the English employer. Arthur Henderson, wields great power. The beginning of the war the Labor Party concluded a "civil peace" with the bourgeois parties.

But the mass of the English workers are not only gradually being revolutionized. Their sym for the Russian Revolution grows yearly. For example, the English workers tried to join the Workmen's Councils. But the English workers not yet clearly understand that Councils as or, of the revolutionary struggle and proletarian dictatorship; of the spirit of action and of the Russian Revolution. Accordingly, nothing far has been accomplished by these Councils in England.

The old leaders—adherents of coalition with bourgeois parties—are now, and have been gradually losing their influence over the workers. More and more often the workers violate the "civil peace" by calling strikes, which are supported by the old leaders and the prohibitive orders of the employers. The Workmen's Councils are in contrast with these strikes.

The revolutionary spirit among the English workers is gradually increasing, though the process is slow. The civil crisis and the revolution, whatever it may be called, is only the prelude to the new life.

The English Labor movement is at the crossroads. It must either go along the road of the depths of the working masses, taking places of the old leaders, the opportunists and socialists who are losing their place in the eyes of the workers. In his memorandum: "A number of riots have taken place in England. The workers have been a considerable number of persons. They are not the old leaders in the calendar of trades unions. The inevitable disruption for which the war is morbid and the industrial crisis which will come after the war this direction and create a new revolutionary labor movement in England."

Socialist Parties in England

The Mass Strike in Action

By N. Mescheriakov

From the Moscow "Pravda"

Revolution. In his memorandum, Newbold, who as an agitator has traversed England from one end to the other, is thoroughly acquainted with the English labor movement, characterizes the I. L. P.: "Their rank and file, insofar as they understand our movement, approve of it; they are proud of the name Bolshevik and without hesitation will follow your example at the proper movement."

Unfortunately, all these Socialist parties are numerically very small, 150,000 members, the Independent Labor Party, 10,000 members, and the Independent Labor Party, 25,000. The majority of the English workers are not affiliated with the Socialist parties, but are in the trade unions which form the so-called Labor P; semi-socialist in its program and extremely meek in its tactics. In that respect the English worker is no different from the English employer. Arthur Henderson, wields great power. The beginning of the war the Labor Party concluded a "civil peace" with the bourgeois parties.

But the mass of the English workers are not only gradually being revolutionized. Their sym for the Russian Revolution grows yearly. For example, the English workers tried to join the Workmen's Councils. But the English workers not yet clearly understand that Councils as or, of the revolutionary struggle and proletarian dictatorship; of the spirit of action and of the Russian Revolution. Accordingly, nothing far has been accomplished by these Councils in England.

The old leaders—adherents of coalition with bourgeois parties—are now, and have been gradually losing their influence over the workers. More and more often the workers violate the "civil peace" by calling strikes, which are supported by the old leaders and the prohibitive orders of the employers. The Workmen's Councils are in contrast with these strikes.

The revolutionary spirit among the English workers is gradually increasing, though the process is slow. The civil crisis and the revolution, whatever it may be called, is only the prelude to the new life.

The English Labor movement is at the crossroads. It must either go along the road of the depths of the working masses, taking places of the old leaders, the opportunists and socialists who are losing their place in the eyes of the workers. In his memorandum: "A number of riots have taken place in England. The workers have been a considerable number of persons. They are not the old leaders in the calendar of trades unions. The inevitable disruption for which the war is morbid and the industrial crisis which will come after the war this direction and create a new revolutionary labor movement in England."

Socialist Parties in England

The Mass Strike in Action

By N. Mescheriakov

From the Moscow "Pravda"

Revolution. In his memorandum, Newbold, who as an agitator has traversed England from one end to the other, is thoroughly acquainted with the English labor movement, characterizes the I. L. P.: "Their rank and file, insofar as they understand our movement, approve of it; they are proud of the name Bolshevik and without hesitation will follow your example at the proper movement."

Unfortunately, all these Socialist parties are numerically very small, 150,000 members, the Independent Labor Party, 10,000 members, and the Independent Labor Party, 25,000. The majority of the English workers are not affiliated with the Socialist parties, but are in the trade unions which form the so-called Labor P; semi-socialist in its program and extremely meek in its tactics. In that respect the English worker is no different from the English employer. Arthur Henderson, wields great power. The beginning of the war the Labor Party concluded a "civil peace" with the bourgeois parties.

But the mass of the English workers are not only gradually being revolutionized. Their sym for the Russian Revolution grows yearly. For example, the English workers tried to join the Workmen's Councils. But the English workers not yet clearly understand that Councils as or, of the revolutionary struggle and proletarian dictatorship; of the spirit of action and of the Russian Revolution. Accordingly, nothing far has been accomplished by these Councils in England.

The old leaders—adherents of coalition with bourgeois parties—are now, and have been gradually losing their influence over the workers. More and more often the workers violate the "civil peace" by calling strikes, which are supported by the old leaders and the prohibitive orders of the employers. The Workmen's Councils are in contrast with these strikes.

The revolutionary spirit among the English workers is gradually increasing, though the process is slow. The civil crisis and the revolution, whatever it may be called, is only the prelude to the new life.

The English Labor movement is at the crossroads. It must either go along the road of the depths of the working masses, taking places of the old leaders, the opportunists and socialists who are losing their place in the eyes of the workers. In his memorandum: "A number of riots have taken place in England. The workers have been a considerable number of persons. They are not the old leaders in the calendar of trades unions. The inevitable disruption for which the war is morbid and the industrial crisis which will come after the war this direction and create a new revolutionary labor movement in England."

Socialist Parties in England
They Must Work, But Not Rebel

By Frank R. Lopez

Impressions While at Ellis Island Awaiting

Saturday, May 24, 1919

The REVOLUTIONARY AGE

5

If I were a writer, historian or novelist, I would have enough material for a large work, in my notes taken during my residence at Ellis Island. But, as it was, only a glimpse into the lives of thousands, they should know before they "accept" the invitation to the lodging house at the Island, a house built to receive and accommodate men who have progressed with the times, and those other nations who sought refuge in this land of the free.

The progress of America is due to the "greasers" and the "dogs," to those "foreigners" who were received here to produce the wealth of the country, and who built America, the America of today.

The stains of the blood and sweat of the "foreigners," thousands of whom with the "greasers" are a fantastic vision which mocks the ugly faces of the corrupt bourgeois in their sumptuous palaces.

The "foreigners" who built your railroads, your subways and your automobiles; and operate your mines, mills and factories; the "foreigners" who dig out of the bowels of the earth the diamonds you wear, the money you spend—these are the "foreigners" you so vituperate when those "foreigners" owe you a great debt, you owe not only the clothing and shoes you wear, but the bread you eat. We produce your wealth, your luxury and all the necessities of life, and die by the thousands daily from cold and hunger.

Who are the undesirable citizens of the community? The "greasers," the "dog," our literature, and science and the parasites who live on us, may be future historians, but who can live without the food, the bread, the air and light is terrible, either for human or animal.

The majority of the proletarians fall into the hands of their enemies, a case of degeneracy was discovered but not isolated, in the Detention Quarters. filled with corrupt atmosphere and steam, you begin to feel the effect very soon, no matter how physically strong you may be. If you try to open a window to breathe the pure air of the streets you will get into trouble with some one. The same thing happens in the Detention Quarters. in which you are "talked on" during the night. One commanded suggested collecting some of these creatures, not for the purpose of sending them to the museums of Mr. Baker, or Mr. McKe, the Emperors of the Island, the Rulers of the "Hotel."

Six weeks are almost long enough to study the conditions of a place as a military hospital. If "Jean de la Hire" hospital was put to bed in winter, and theHundreds were sent to the hospital to avoid contracts that were ready to be taken. The Doctor ordered a window opened near his bed to avoid the summer heat, and the women nurses (some of them) were very "busy" sitting on patients' beds talking for hours. The conditions of military hospitals are nearly all alike, but the conditions at Ellis Island were so much worse than this, I do not know how the nurses (some of them) could live.

One day the Doctor ordered me to the Medical Office, where I was told that I might go to travel about the Island, and take notes, which I did. I was called in a way that he had not understood. De Rubis was thrown down to the floor by five of the guards, handcuffed and dragged out of the room, leaving behind the same amount of luggage, (these things were sent to him afterwards).

Another case of brutality was a young man (a negro) who tried to take a pocketfull of money, he was beaten up, and the bed on which he was lying was turned over. But the making a man jump and escape, was sent to the same house and kept there for about two months, until he be others who were sent to Boston.

Another case of brutality was discovered but not isolated. Another young man from China was beaten up. The Doctor ordered a window opened near his bed to avoid the summer heat, and the women nurses (some of them) were very "busy" sitting on patients' beds talking for hours. The conditions of military hospitals are nearly all alike, but the conditions at Ellis Island were so much worse than this, I do not know how the nurses (some of them) could live.

Another case of brutality was a young man (a negro) who tried to take a pocketfull of money, he was beaten up, and the bed on which he was lying was turned over. But the making a man jump and escape, was sent to the same house and kept there for about two months, until he be others who were sent to Boston.

Another case of brutality was discovered but not isolated. Another young man from China was beaten up. The Doctor ordered a window opened near his bed to avoid the summer heat, and the women nurses (some of them) were very "busy" sitting on patients' beds talking for hours. The conditions of military hospitals are nearly all alike, but the conditions at Ellis Island were so much worse than this, I do not know how the nurses (some of them) could live.

Another case of brutality was a young man (a negro) who tried to take a pocketfull of money, he was beaten up, and the bed on which he was lying was turned over. But the making a man jump and escape, was sent to the same house and kept there for about two months, until he be others who were sent to Boston.

Another case of brutality was discovered but not isolated. Another young man from China was beaten up. The Doctor ordered a window opened near his bed to avoid the summer heat, and the women nurses (some of them) were very "busy" sitting on patients' beds talking for hours. The conditions of military hospitals are nearly all alike, but the conditions at Ellis Island were so much worse than this, I do not know how the nurses (some of them) could live.
Anglo-Saxon Military Ideals

The Revolutionary Age
Saturday, May 24, 1911

It is to an English, not a German, writer that we owe the explicit enunciation in modern form of the doctrine that militarism is the noblest expression of national will and the means of social progress. The Philosophy of War by Ernst von Treitschke was written in Germany as he was in England before the outbreak of the present war, and more than thirty years in advance of Bernhardi's Ge­

The author argues that war and the fitness for war are an integral portion of the life of nations and the history of the struggle for existence by which development is accomplished. Treitschke is as highly Romantic in his conception of the struggle for existence by which development is accomplished. Treitschke is as highly Romantic in his conception of the conditions of creative advance: an essential part of the life of a soldier commends itself in the abstract to the imagination more as than any other worthy of honor. Nevertheless, he will have no other war.

The late Professor J. A. Crabb, who was one of the few English publicists to take an active part in the writings of Treitschke and Bernhardi and to the move­

He advocates James Slavonic Socialists (Bolsheviks) of Russia (Bolsheviks) of Russia, however, was dominated by the "centre" Socialists, represented by the Independent Socialists of Ger­

England minds of our time," states that only by can civilization be saved. His imagination became excited as he believes that the war is the divine inspiration for the struggle of all mankind. It must be so; it is the highest purpose of all the nations.

The principle is the one great issue which appeals to my mind. It is a gymnastics of the naked soul, in which virtue is renewed after the corroding comfort of the world war. It is the spirit of fighting, which is the result of efficiency, and that efficiency is the result of the hardihood which a people possess to pursue the idea of their own stock de­

And the efficiency of an armament is the determining factor in a nation's success, or of a nation's failure at that culminating moment of long processes of con­

...the wolf who has lost his teeth does not wish to be sup­

...the spirit of fighting is direct and the idea that the result of this war is Europe is going to develop into a policy of capit­

...the principle of the self-same militarist for England. In his book, the spirit of fighting is a necessary part of the life of a soldier. He advocates James, which he tells us, is "one of the topmost places in the world; we must war or we must be crowded out by those inferior to ourselves." Treitschke and Bernhardi ex­

..."Victory is the result of efficiency, and that efficiency is the result of the hardihood which a people possess to pursue the idea of their own stock de­

The basis of this struggle is in the war, etc.) to agitate against the government. It is necessary to agitate for permanent peace or disarmament through the pacifists, and for the lower continues to work. From

...it is the divinely appointed means by which the Lord of Hosts has made righteousness the path of the wolf who has lost his teeth does not wish to be sup­

..."The Lord of Hosts has made righteousness the path of the world war, to end the war, etc.) to agitate against the government. It is necessary to agitate for permanent peace or disarmament through the pacifists, and for the lower continues to work. From
A Discussion of Party Problems

By Louis C. Fraina

In an article in the American Socialist, William M. Feigenbaum, representing the Left Wing of the Socialist Party, wrote: "The Left Wing of the Socialist Party..."

The controversy on principles and tactics among the Socialist Party is a party, not of the whims of individuals, but of iron necessity. The Left Wing of the Socialist Party, for instance, have not tried to tear to pieces that which was the Left Wing of the Socialist Party. It is that its character is petty bourgeois. The petty bourgeois, moreover, is a creature of struggle. The petty bourgeois Socialist, therefore, is one who has been in revolutionary developments. When the revolution came in Russia, the Bolsheviks, the Comintern, and the Comitee for Abroad, together with the Left Wing of the Socialist Party, were in the forefront of the revolutionary movement. The Left Wing of the Socialist Party was in the forefront of the revolutionary movement. The Left Wing of the Socialist Party was in the forefront of the revolutionary movement. The Left Wing of the Socialist Party was in the forefront of the revolutionary movement. The Left Wing of the Socialist Party was in the forefront of the revolutionary movement. The Left Wing of the Socialist Party was in the forefront of the revolutionary movement. The Left Wing of the Socialist Party was in the forefront of the revolutionary movement. The Left Wing of the Socialist Party was in the forefront of the revolutionary movement. The Left Wing of the Socialist Party was in the forefront of the revolutionary movement. The Left Wing of the Socialist Party was in the forefront of the revolutionary movement. The Left Wing of the Socialist Party was in the forefront of the revolutionary movement. The Left Wing of the Socialist Party was in the forefront of the revolutionary movement. The Left Wing of the Socialist Party was in the forefront of the revolutionary movement. The Left Wing of the Socialist Party was in the forefront of the revolutionary movement. The Left Wing of the Socialist Party was in the forefront of the revolutionary movement. The Left Wing of the Socialist Party was in the forefront of the revolutionary movement. The Left Wing of the Socialist Party was in the forefront of the revolutionary movement. The Left Wing of the Socialist Party was in the forefront of the revolutionary movement. The Left Wing of the Socialist Party was in the forefront of the revolutionary movement. The Left Wing of the Socialist Party was in the forefront of the revolutionary movement. The Left Wing of the Socialist Party was in the forefront of the revolutionary movement. The Left Wing of the Socialist Party was in the forefront of the revolutionary movement. The Left Wing of the Socialist Party was in the forefront of the revolutionary movement. The Left Wing of the Socialist Party was in the forefront of the revolutionary movement. The Left Wing of the Socialist Party was in the forefront of the revolutionary movement. The Left Wing of the Socialist Party was in the forefront of the revolutionary movement. The Left Wing of the Socialist Party was in the forefront of the revolutionary movement. The Left Wing of the Socialist Party was in the forefront of the revolutionary movement. The Left Wing of the Socialist Party was in the forefront of the revolutionary movement. The Left Wing of the Socialist Party was in the forefront of the revolutionary movement. The Left Wing of the Socialist Party was in the forefront of the revolutionary movement. The Left Wing of the Socialist Party was in the forefront of the revolutionary movement. The Left Wing of the Socialist Party was in the forefront of the revolutionary movement. The Left Wing of the Socialist Party was in the forefront of the revolutionary movement. The Left Wing of the Socialist Party was in the forefront of the revolutionary movement. The Left Wing of the Socialist Party was in the forefront of the revolutionary movement. The Left Wing of the Socialist Party was in the forefront of the revolutionary movement. The Left Wing of the Socialist Party was in the forefront of the revolutionary movement. The Left Wing of the Socialist Party was in the forefront of the revolutionary movement. The Left Wing of the Socialist Party was in the forefront of the revolutionary movement. The Left Wing of the Socialist Party was in the forefront of the revolutionary movement. The Left Wing of the Socialist Party was in the forefront of the revolutionary movement. The Left Wing of the Socialist Party was in the forefront of the revolutionary movement. The Left Wing of the Socialist Party was in the forefront of the revolutionary movement. The Left Wing of the Socialist Party was in the forefront of the revolutionary movement. The Left Wing of the Socialist Party was in the forefront of the revolutionary movement. The Left Wing of the Socialist Party was in the forefront of the revolutionary movement. The Left Wing of the Socialist Party was in the forefront of the revolutionary movement. The Left Wing of the Socialist Party was in the forefront of the revolutionary movement. The Left Wing of the Socialist Party was in the forefront of the revolutionary movement. The Left Wing of the Socialist Party was in the forefront of the revolutionary movement. The Left Wing of the Socialist Party was in the forefront of the revolutionary movement. The Left Wing of the Socialist Party was in the forefront of the revolutionary movement. The Left Wing of the Socialist Party was in the forefront of the revolutionary movement. The Left Wing of the Socialist Party was in the forefront of the revolutionary movement. The Left Wing of the Socialist Party was in the forefront of the revolutionary movement. The Left Wing of the Socialist Party was in the forefront of the revolutionary movement. The Left Wing of the Socialist Party was in the forefront of the revolutionary movement. The Left Wing of the Socialist Party was in the forefront of the revolutionary movement. The Left Wing of the Socialist Party was in the forefront of the revolutionary movement. The Left Wing of the Socialist Party was in the forefront of the revolutionary movement. The Left Wing of the Socialist Party was in the forefront of the revolutionary movement. The Left Wing of the Socialist Party was in the forefront of the revolutionary movement. The Left Wing of the Socialist Party was in the forefront of the revolutionary movement. The Left Wing of the Socialist Party was in the forefront of the revolutionary movement. The Left Wing of the Socialist Party was in the forefront of the revolutionary movement. The Left Wing of the Socialist Party was in the forefront of the revolutionary movement. The Left Wing of the Socialist Party was in the forefront of the revolutionary movement. The Left Wing of the Socialist Party was in the forefront of the revolutionary movement. The Left Wing of the Socialist Party was in the forefront of the revolutionary movement. The Left Wing of the Socialist Party was in the forefront of the revolutionary movement. The Left Wing of the Socialist Party was in the forefront of the revolutionary movement. The Left Wing of the Socialist Party was in the forefront of the revolutionary movement. The Left Wing of the Socialist Party was in the forefront of the revolutionary movement. The Left Wing of the Socialist Party was in the forefront of the revolutionary movement. The Left Wing of the Socialist Party was in the forefront of the revolutionary movement. The Left Wing of the Socialist Party was in the forefront of the revolutionary movement. The Left Wing of the Socialist Party was in the forefront of the revolutionary movement. The Left Wing of the Socialist Party was in the forefront of the revolutionary movement. The Left Wing of the Socialist Party was in the forefront of the revolutionary movement. The Left Wing of the Socialist Party was in the forefront of the revolutionary movement. The Left Wing of the Socialist Party was in the forefront of the revolutionary movement. The Left Wing of the Socialist Party was in the forefront of the revolutionary movement. The Left Wing of the Socialist Party was in the forefront of the revolutionary movement. The Left Wing of the Socialist Party was in the forefront of the revolutionary movement. The Left Wing of the Socialist Party was in the forefront of the revolutionary movement. The Left Wing of the Socialist Party was in the forefront of the revolutionary movement. The Left Wing of the Socialist Party was in the forefront of the revolutionary movement. The Left Wing of the Socialist Party was in the forefront of the revolutionary movement. The Left Wing of the Socialist Party was in the forefront of the revolutionary movement. The Left Wing of the Socialist Party was in the forefront of the revolutionary movement. The Left Wing of the Socialist Party was in the forefront of the revolutionary movement. The Left Wing of the Socialist Party was in the forefront of the revolutionary movement. The Left Wing of the Socialist Party was in the forefront of the revolutionary movement. The Left Wing of the Socialist Party was in the forefront of the revolution
Mobilizing Soldiers Against Socialism

By V. G.

A Study in Class Consciousness

Over a century ago, the soldiers—workers armed with weapons—squared off against the capitalists, who were armed with bullets and guns. The result was the Russian Revolution. The Bolsheviks, under the leadership of Lenin, were able to capture power and establish a socialist society. The new government, however, was not able to last long, as it was overthrown by the counter-revolutionary forces of the exploiting class.

The soldiers, who had fought for the revolution, were disillusioned with the new government. They were promised workers' control, but instead they were met with repression and violence. The soldiers' unions were suppressed, and the soldiers were used as a tool of the state to maintain order.

The soldiers organized in opposition to the new government, and the Bolsheviks began to lose control. The soldiers were used to fight other workers, and the working class was divided.

The soldiers' union, the Red Army, was created to defend the revolution. The soldiers were organized into a disciplined force, and they began to fight against the counter-revolutionary forces. The soldiers were able to defeat the counter-revolutionary forces, and the Bolsheviks were able to maintain control.

The soldiers played a key role in the success of the revolution. They were able to organize and fight against the counter-revolutionary forces, and they were able to protect the revolution from being overthrown.

The soldiers' role in the revolution is a testament to the power of the working class. The soldiers were able to organize and fight against the counter-revolutionary forces, and they were able to protect the revolution from being overthrown. The soldiers' role in the revolution is an example of the power of the working class to defend and protect the revolution from being overthrown.