When branches do not have good speakers, members should request readers to read aloud the entire morning's address. The Branch Committee will ensure that the views of each reader are the same, with the view of creating a good impression.

It looks as if the people who profess to be Socialists and yet have not got a word to say have lost faith in their principles, for the reasons which would be known by the principle with which they have issued these orders.

A report comes from Paris that political circles are all prepared to counter ize the communist party of the country by the formation of a new socialist party. In the name of the Social Democrats, the League of Social Democrats will be formed, with Mr. G. E. P. Gordon in its chairmanship.

"R. E. G. Gordon, who for several years has been the politician of the League of Democratic Socialists, will probably be selected for the post of chairman of the new party. Few people have taken much notice of Mr. Gordon, yet in the few weeks he has been active he has made himself felt. He has commanded the respect of the few he has met, has a pleasant manner, and is respected in his local constituency, and is not unknown. If any, the League of Social Democrats club of Gordon is probably the most important work in his republic.
