WOOD AND ACT CONTRAPOSED

Mr. Jones of Toledo, claiming to be a “social democrat” and to support Bryan, who is an individualist, is running for Congress in the 108th district. If he is elected, he will support

Bryan, who is an individualist. If he is not elected, he will support Bryan, who is an

DEMONSTRATIVE NOTIONS OF FREEDOM

For some time past Comrade C. W. P. has been making speeches in the Socialist Party as to the “conservative” character of the Democratic Party.

When Comrade C. W. P. speaks in the Socialist Party, he is certain to come out in support of Bryan, who uses his influence with Democratic leaders to support the Republican Party.

Bryan’s appeal to the working class is characteristic of the great capitalist movement. Favoring the capitalist movement,

Bryan campaigns for the comfortable existence of the comfortable capitalist class.

Punjab, and we can do anything in our policy. But it is not the British who can do anything in their policy.

Notes and Comments

One of the largest manufacturing units in the United States, that employs 6,000 workmen and pays $20,000 a month in wages, is the Hazelton Steel Company at South Chicago. It is a typical example of the capitalist system, and it is in this company that the laborer finds himself in the position of a free worker.

The strike of the miners’ strike to get better the people of the United States, is an attempt to make the strike in which 15,000 men, most of them miners, have been engaged. It is already feared that thousands of unemployed men will join the strike, and the poor miners of Pennsylvania will be driven into desperation.

THE CAMPAIGN FUND

The Social Democratic Party of America declares that it is the duty of all workers to finance the party as for all democratic political parties. For the Social Democratic Party of America is an instrument of democratic socialism, which is based on the same principles as the Social Democratic Party of Europe. The Social Democratic Party of America is not a sect; it is a political party. It is political because its aims are political aims, not religious or humanitarian or philanthropic. The Social Democratic Party of America is the expression of the aspirations of those who desire a society based on the complete equality of the races and the sexes.

In our campaign we shall not hand out handbills to the voter, but we shall distribute leaflets and pamphlets. We shall not go from door to door and canvass. We shall not make speeches in public places. We shall not make a show of force or militancy. We shall not make a show of weakness or timidity. We shall not make a show of anything. We shall simply write letters to the people, and ask them to come to our meetings, and vote for us.
