A POLITICAL STRAW FROM CLEVELAND

"Social Democracy must be a part of the movement," the Democratic national convention committee, which had its first meeting last night, decided. The convention committee, which has been charged by the Democratic party with the responsibility of winning over the votes of the Social Democratic party, urged a complete merger of the Social Democratic party with the Democratic party, which would have the effect of changing the face of the Democratic convention, which is now dominated by the forces of the old guard.

"It is infinitely better to vote for freedom and fall, than to vote for slavery and succeed." —January 5, 1900

"...in this case the passengers pay the railroad for the use of their cars as much as the railroad pays out for hands to keep up the cars. In other words, the other case the passenger paid in fare 40 times more than the railroad pays out for labor."
The Social Democratic Party of America was formed in October 1900 at Columbus, Ohio. By 1910, it had over 10,000 members across the country. The party's goals included reforms in labor and social conditions, and it endorsed the principle of economic equality for all. The party played a significant role in the early 20th century in advocating for workers' rights, women's suffrage, and other progressive causes.
