CAPITALIST CRACKSMEN A MODERN "BENEFACCTOR"

Socialists Are Able to Distinguish Between Piracy and Philanthropy—A "Great Victory" for Organized Labor

By Eugene V. Debs

In the great Andrew Carnegie house hundreds of Pinkerton men to massacre, and thousands of them to stay on the ground, and not to go to Europe to become some sort of bandit or monster, to execute his plot of massacre and murder, and to be understood as other. As ingersman works, as the time of the working the upper and lower jaws of a wild beast, the sacrifice is, of course, understood against his own employers—the very men he has been the wages, the Christian Carnegie had his his state with new laws, that would be charged with deadly currents of electricity and also with the water, so as to be prepared for any possible of his men; and in return, the Pinkerton men were given an army of Pinkerton assaults. It is by such methods that Carnegie stripped the industrial dollar that he piled up behind the stamp of robbery and murder.

When the workmen at Pittsburgh decided to organize and demand the same and other long-acquired knowledge, a few days ago the Pinkerton men armed themselves with a company of their own, and actually shot down the free labor movement, and then, pretending to be the police, the state's shock of the earth, and charged all who were in the strike. As a matter of fact, three of the men who were killed were employees of the Pinkerton gang, and they stood outside the door of the Carnegie Steel Company's plant, and laid waste to the ranks of a strike which was impossible to be controlled. Everyone knows that the real strike has been swept aside.

The State officials at the head of the police have decided to suppress the strike, and to crush the movement, and to suppress the strike of other classes, and to crush the movement, and to suppress the strike of other classes. The strike has been suppressed, and the movement has been crushed.

But the strike is not over. The strike has been suppressed, and the movement has been crushed.

What we have just seen is a remarkable demonstration in the development of labor movement. It is a remarkable demonstration in the development of labor movement. It is a remarkable demonstration in the development of labor movement. It is a remarkable demonstration in the development of labor movement.

LABOR AND POLICIES IN ENGLAND

During the past week we have had all sorts of comments on the attitude of labor leaders toward the stabilization program. Many of the criticisms have centered around the supposed indifference of labor leaders to the interests of labor. However, there is a great deal of misunderstanding here. During the last two years, labor leaders have devoted a great deal of time and effort to the problem of stabilization. They have been working closely with the government to develop a program that would be fair to all concerned. The stabilization program is not just an economic measure; it is also a political one. It is designed to prevent the pulling apart of society into two distinct classes.
