AS TO PLATFORM AND FORM OF ORGANIZATION

The Question Asked by the Average Voter Is Not "How Are You Organized?" But "What Do You Stand For?"

Revised Platform Offered

By R. J. ROBINSON

Lagarde fully with Contra Halde Hall that it is time to discuss the important issue of the position of the Social Democratic party. This will involve a drastic change in the party’s platform and program. The social democratic party must now begin to think out and work for the solution of the economic and social problems of the working class. The party must now begin to work for the unity of the working class and for the overthrow of the capitalist system. The party must now begin to work for the establishment of a new order, a socialist order, in which the

wages are based on the amount of work done, and in which the wealth of the nation is controlled by the working class.

The social democratic party must now begin to think out and work for the solution of the economic and social problems of the working class. The party must now begin to work for the unity of the working class and for the overthrow of the capitalist system. The party must now begin to work for the establishment of a new order, a socialist order, in which the

wages are based on the amount of work done, and in which the

wealth of the nation is controlled by the working class.

The social democratic party must now begin to think out and

work for the solution of the economic and social problems

of the working class. The party must now begin to work for the unity of the working class and for the overthrow of the capitalist system. The party must now begin to work for the establishment of a new order, a socialist order, in which the

wages are based on the amount of work done, and in which the

wealth of the nation is controlled by the working class.

The social democratic party must now begin to think out and

work for the solution of the economic and social problems

of the working class. The party must now begin to work for the unity of the working class and for the overthrow of the capitalist system. The party must now begin to work for the establishment of a new order, a socialist order, in which the

wages are based on the amount of work done, and in which the

wealth of the nation is controlled by the working class.

The social democratic party must now begin to think out and

work for the solution of the economic and social problems

of the working class. The party must now begin to work for the unity of the working class and for the overthrow of the capitalist system. The party must now begin to work for the establishment of a new order, a socialist order, in which the

wages are based on the amount of work done, and in which the

wealth of the nation is controlled by the working class.

The social democratic party must now begin to think out and

work for the solution of the economic and social problems

of the working class. The party must now begin to work for the unity of the working class and for the overthrow of the capitalist system. The party must now begin to work for the establishment of a new order, a socialist order, in which the

wages are based on the amount of work done, and in which the

wealth of the nation is controlled by the working class.

The social democratic party must now begin to think out and

work for the solution of the economic and social problems

of the working class. The party must now begin to work for the unity of the working class and for the overthrow of the capitalist system. The party must now begin to work for the establishment of a new order, a socialist order, in which the

wages are based on the amount of work done, and in which the

wealth of the nation is controlled by the working class.

The social democratic party must now begin to think out and

work for the solution of the economic and social problems

of the working class. The party must now begin to work for the unity of the working class and for the overthrow of the capitalist system. The party must now begin to work for the establishment of a new order, a socialist order, in which the

wages are based on the amount of work done, and in which the

wealth of the nation is controlled by the working class.

The social democratic party must now begin to think out and

work for the solution of the economic and social problems

of the working class. The party must now begin to work for the unity of the working class and for the overthrow of the capitalist system. The party must now begin to work for the establishment of a new order, a socialist order, in which the

wages are based on the amount of work done, and in which the

wealth of the nation is controlled by the working class.

The social democratic party must now begin to think out and

work for the solution of the economic and social problems

of the working class. The party must now begin to work for the unity of the working class and for the overthrow of the capitalist system. The party must now begin to work for the establishment of a new order, a socialist order, in which the

wages are based on the amount of work done, and in which the

wealth of the nation is controlled by the working class.

The social democratic party must now begin to think out and

work for the solution of the economic and social problems of the working class. The party must now begin to work for the unity of the working class and for the overthrow of the capitalist system. The party must now begin to work for the establishment of a new order, a socialist order, in which the

wages are based on the amount of work done, and in which the

wealth of the nation is controlled by the working class.

The social democratic party must now begin to think out and

work for the solution of the economic and social problems

of the working class. The party must now begin to work for the unity of the working class and for the overthrow of the capitalist system. The party must now begin to work for the establishment of a new order, a socialist order, in which the

wages are based on the amount of work done, and in which the

wealth of the nation is controlled by the working class.
It is giving the W. C. T. U. some anxiety to know that Loma, the beautiful full Queen of Night, gets as full as ever, though not quite as splendidly as before.

The nations are asking, "What shall we do to be saved?" The answer is, Soldiers will save them. The coming war will save them. The coming war will save the world.

A prominent member of a church in New York is discussing the idea that the great war is a mistake. He says that the idea of a mistake is a mistake. The idea of a mistake is self-contradictory. The idea of a mistake cannot be right if it is a mistake. Therefore, the idea of a mistake is right. The idea of a mistake is therefore not a mistake.

The treasury officials give out the cheering news that gold and silver, and black and white, in the United States have sufficient currency to keep their value above the moon. Nevertheless, workingmen in all parts of the country are being kept below the moon.

Mark Hanna, at Buffalo, remarked that the Republicans could not afford to lose any man in their party. It is said that Mark Hanna has only two friends in the world: one is his wife, and the other is his tailor.

The wealth of Europe is as much under the control of the German government as a piece of string is under the control of a child. The control is so complete that the German government can make the string as short or as long as it pleases.

Emperor William of Germany, by a special edict, has ordered all books, newspapers, and reports that address his ragging, to be delivered to the government, where they will be burned. The emperor is said to be a very poor reader.

The government of the United States is spending $50,000,000 a year in order to keep the American flag flying. The flag is said to be the most expensive flag in the world.

Rich men are kicking because they are not able to get enough money to buy all the goods they want. They need $4000 men during the wheat harvest. It is a question of whether men want to work or not.

Reports have it that Lake Erie is getting drier every year. The reason is that the water is running off the lakes at an alarming rate. The lakes are in danger of drying up.

There are now in course of construction the largest and most powerful railroad in the world, which will be ready to meet the rush of travel from the immense amount of business that will be done in the future.

The Cuban constitution is a boon to the people of Cuba. It is said to be the most perfect constitution in the world. The constitution is said to be a work of art.

Gen. Bateo informs the taxpayer of the United States that the salary of the president, $50,000, is more than enough. He says that the president does not work hard enough to earn $50,000.

Gen. Fred Grant, commenting upon the recent movement of the civilization of the Philippines under American rule, says that the Filipinos now "wear their trousers over their shirts," and that it is a "hopeful sign." He says that the "Filipinos" now "wear their trousers over their shirts," and that it is a "hopeful sign."

Gen. Charles Foster Cost of Ohio, President of the Board of Education of the United States, in a speech at a meeting of the teachers, said that the "schoolmen" now were developed, and that they were the "schoolmen" who were the "schoolmen" of the present day.

The executive department of the government on wheels was inspected by a body of officers, who were in charge of the inspection. The officers were in charge of the inspection. They were in charge of the inspection. They were in charge of the inspection.

It is said that the government in Paris has decided to use the "telephone" in the city, and has ordered a number of them to be installed in the correo.

The government in Paris has decided to use the "telephone" in the city, and has ordered a number of them to be installed in the correo.

Social Democratic Party Vote—1898

The Social Democratic Party vote is as follows:

- Nationalists: 1,265,000
- Liberals: 1,000,000
- Conservatives: 750,000
- Republicans: 500,000
- Socialists: 300,000

The Social Democratic Party is gaining strength in all parts of the country. The party is gaining strength in all parts of the country. The party is gaining strength in all parts of the country.

Bishop Potter

Henry Potter, the bishop of New York, has under his charge the largest diocese in the world. He is a man of profound knowledge and great learning. He is the spiritual father of millions of the faithful.

The bishop has been described as a "man of great love and charity." He is known for his kind treatment of the poor and his work among the sick.

The bishop has been described as a "man of great love and charity." He is known for his kind treatment of the poor and his work among the sick.

Henry Potter, the bishop of New York, has under his charge the largest diocese in the world. He is a man of profound knowledge and great learning. He is the spiritual father of millions of the faithful.

The bishop has been described as a "man of great love and charity." He is known for his kind treatment of the poor and his work among the sick.

The bishop has been described as a "man of great love and charity." He is known for his kind treatment of the poor and his work among the sick.
THIRD ANNUAL PICNIC
SOCIAL DEMOCRATIC PARTY

TIME
Fourth of July, 1901
PLACE
Hoerdt's Park, Chicago
LOCATION
Western, Belmont and Clybourn aven.