REVOLUTION AND REFORM.

The revolution which socialistic ideas, if not before the development of our industries has made it necessary, has not been all the industries of the world. In the same way that it is not the whole of mankind that is affected by this revolution, it is not all that is affected by the revolution that may be said to be in a state of revolution. The revolution which has taken place in the past few years has been one of the most important events in the history of mankind. It has been a revolution of ideas, a revolution of thought, a revolution of feeling.
