Can the Workmen Free Themselves?

MADENING MADDEN

As to the Philosophy of American Capitalism...
The Advance Here.

Growth of Socialism.

The Socialist party has rapidly increased in membership and influence in recent months. The party's numbers have grown significantly in the cities, particularly in New York and Chicago. The party's platform, which includes policies such as free education, free health care, and labor rights, has resonated with many city dwellers.

City Central Committee.

The City Central Committee met recently to discuss the party's strategy and plans for the upcoming election. The committee agreed to focus onorganizing and registering voters in key districts to ensure a strong showing in the polls. They also discussed the need for better funding and resources to support their grassroots efforts.

Sunday Night Lectures.

The party is holding a series of Sunday night lectures in various cities. These lectures aim to educate the public on socialist principles and mobilize support for the party's policies. The lectures are open to the public and are free of charge.

General Notes.

- In Atlanta, Georgia, the party is planning to hold a large rally next month. The rally will feature speeches by prominent socialist leaders and will be attended by thousands of supporters.
- A new socialist newspaper, "The Worker," has started publishing in New York City. The newspaper aims to provide the public with accurate information about socialist policies and the party's activities.

Socialism and Education.

The party is working to improve education in socialist schools. They have recently introduced new curriculum that focuses on labor rights and the history of the working class. The party believes that education is a crucial tool for spreading socialist ideas.

Branch Meetings.

- The City Central Committee meets every first and third Monday evening of the month at Kaiser's Hall, 20th St.
- Branch No. 1 meets on the second Thursday evening of the month.
- Branch No. 4 meets on the first Tuesday evening of the month.
- Branch No. 7 meets on the second Thursday evening of the month.
- Branch No. 11 meets on the second Tuesday evening of the month.
- The Central Committee meets every first Sunday evening of the month.

A great entertainment will be given in connection with the meeting. A series of lectures will be presented, including topics on socialism, labor rights, and current political issues. Refreshments will be available throughout the event, and a dance will follow the speeches.

The Rights and Wrongs of Labor.

We commend "Mark's" book for its clear and compelling portrayal of the labor struggles of the past. "Mark" is one of the leading socialist leaders, and his book provides valuable insights into the history of labor rights and the role of socialism in the struggle for workers' rights.

Stoll's College.

Stoll's College is offering free lectures on socialism. The lectures are open to the public, and no registration is required. The college is located at 225 Fourth Avenue, New York City.
