DOWN WITH THE MEAT TRUST!

The meat trust has made its existence plenteously felt in the kitchen of every home, and in the workroom and in the schoolroom. To secure the meat trust in control of the market, and to keep it in check, is one of the greatest needs of the day. The meat trust has been denounced by the Visiter, the New York Times, the Chicago Tribune, and the New York World. The meat trust is composed of the largest meat packers in the country, and they have been known for their ruthless tactics. The meat trust has been responsible for the high prices of meat, and the scarcity of meat, and the poisoning of the public.
