HERRON ON BROTHER-INTEREST AND SELF-INTEREST.

Societies start with the brotherhood and unity of the men as a fact. It may be that they found that opposition and self-interest was the way to keep alive. The men did not fight for the comradeship of their society. The society did not fight for the unity of the men. But it is a principle that we are very familiar with that the unity of the men is the strongest weapon that can be used against self-interest. The principle that we fight for is that of brotherhood. The principle that we fight for is that of unity. The principle that we fight for is that of the collective interest. The principle that we fight for is that of the public interest. The principle that we fight for is that of the universal interest. The principle that we fight for is that of the common interest. The principle that we fight for is that of the general interest. The principle that we fight for is that of the individual interest. The principle that we fight for is that of the group interest. The principle that we fight for is that of the special interest. The principle that we fight for is that of the particular interest. The principle that we fight for is that of the local interest. The principle that we fight for is that of the sectional interest. The principle that we fight for is that of the national interest. The principle that we fight for is that of the international interest. The principle that we fight for is that of the global interest. The principle that we fight for is that of the universal interest. The principle that we fight for is that of the common interest.
