THE NEW PATRIOTISM.

By WILLIEFRED B. GASBROU.

In the days of old, patriotism was a matter of pride, of honor, of respect for the laws and traditions of the country. It was a matter of loyalty to the体制, to the king, to the emperor. Today, patriotism is a matter of patriotism to the work, to the service, to the community. It is a matter of understanding the values and principles of the social democratic movement, of working towards a more just and equitable society.
